COMPLAINT

DEAFUEH MONBO and JUAHDI MONBO (hereinafter "PLAINTIFFS"), in their Complaint for Actual Damages, Declaratory Judgment, and Injunctive Relief, allege and state to this honorable Court as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. PLAINTIFFS bring this action against the Defendants to redress the deprivation of well-established rights secured to them by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments of the Constitution of the United States of America, and the Connecticut Rules of Criminal Procedures.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1331, 42 U.S.C. §1985, 42 U.S.C. §1986, and Federal Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. §2201, §2202.

3. This Court has general and/or specific personal jurisdiction over Defendants pursuant to 28 U.S. Code § 1332(a).

4. Venue is proper in the district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391.

PARTIES

Plaintiffs:

5. At all times relevant, Plaintiff JUAHDI MONBO ("JUAHDI") was a resident of the State of Massachusetts or the State of Maryland. Plaintiff Juahdi is a Ph.D. candidate with specialties in Immunology and Virology. Plaintiff Juahdi also holds a Master's Degree in Biotechnology. Plaintiff Juahdi began her scientific career after graduating college at age 20 when she was awarded a Pre-Doctoral Intramural Research Training Fellowship at the National Institutes of Health. Plaintiff Juahdi is a published scientist who has dedicated over twenty (20) years of research efforts towards finding therapies for viral diseases and cancer. Plaintiff Juahdi is an African-American professional with no prior criminal history.

6. At all times relevant, Plaintiff DEAFUEH MONBO ("DEAFUEH") was a resident of the State of Maryland. Plaintiff Deafueh is a licensed Certified Public Accountant (CPA). Plaintiff Deafueh has been a CPA since the young age of 25. Plaintiff Deafueh also holds a Master's Degree which she also obtained at the age of 25. Plaintiff Deafueh is the first person in the United States to hold both a CPA license and a Master's Degree at the age of 25. Plaintiff Deafueh is widely recognized for her professional authority on accounting subject matters and professional expertise in accounting and financial management practices. Plaintiff Deafueh has been recognized as International Person of the Year by the International Biographical Centre of England in 1999 at the age of 27. Plaintiff Deafueh has also been recognized as "Who's Who in America's Finance & Industry" by Marquis Who's Who's, a renowned publisher of the top business professionals and achievers from the United States and around the world in 2000 at the age of 28. Plaintiff Deafueh has also served as an adjunct Accounting Professor of Howard Community College from 2002 – 2004, where she instructed college students on principles of accounting. Plaintiff Deafueh is the author of Accounting 101 Made Easy: Principles of Accounting I, published in 2002 at the age of 30. Plaintiff Deafueh is also a business owner and has owned multiple businesses since the age of 29. Today, Plaintiff Deafueh does business throughout the United States and internationally. Plaintiff Deafueh advises key government agencies and corporate management on accounting best practices. Plaintiff Deafueh's clients include billion-dollar institutions. Plaintiff Deafueh is an African-American professional with no prior criminal history.

Defendants:

7. Defendant JACK FISCHER is a resident of the State of Connecticut. Jack Fischer is sued in his official and individual capacity. Jack Fischer is a Criminal Court Judge in Daniclson, Connecticut (Geographical Area No. 11) and is the presiding Judge in Plaintiffs' respective cases.

8. Defendant BARRY ARMATA is a resident of the State of Connecticut. Barry Armata is sued in his official and individual capacity. Barry Armata is a Civil Court Judge in Rockville, Connecticut (Geographical Area No. 19).

9. Defendant MARK STABILE is a resident of the State of Connecticut. Mark Stabile is sued in his official and individual capacity. Mark Stabile was the State Prosecutor for Danielson, Connecticut in September 2019.

10. Defendant ELIZABETH LEAMING is a resident of the State of Connecticut. Elizabeth Leaming is sued in her official and individual capacity. Elizabeth Leaming is the successor State Prosecutor for Danielson, Connecticut, assigned to the Plaintiffs' case after Defendant Mark Stabile was removed from Plaintiffs' cases.

11. Defendant TAMMY FLUET is a resident of the State of Connecticut. Tammy Fluét is sued in her official and individual capacity. Tammy Fluét is the Deputy Chief Clerk at the Danielson Courthouse.

CO-CONSPIRATORS ACTING IN CONCERT

12. Each of the Defendant has acted in concert with various co-conspirators in the interference of civil rights and the deprivation of equal protection of the law as alleged in this complaint. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and on this basis allege, that at all times herein mentioned, each of the Defendants was co-conspirator of each of the other Defendants and in doing the civil rights violations and illegal activities against the Plaintiffs described herein, was acting within the course and scope of their authority as co-conspirators with the permission and consent of their Co-Defendants and, further, that the Defendants and each of them have authorized, ratified, and approved the acts of the other Defendants with full knowledge of those acts. Defendants are properly deemed to be acting in concert because the combined force of their actions serves to multiply the harm caused to Plaintiffs.

CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS, STATUTES, AND RULES INVOLVED

13. Fourth Amendment

The Fourth Amendment requires that judicial probable cause where a warrantless arrest has occurred. The U.S. Supreme Court, in Gerstein v. Pugh, 420 U.S. 103, 95 S. Ct. 854, 43 L. Ed. 2d 54 (1975), mandated that persons arrested without a warrant and held by the police must be given a preliminary hearing to determine if there is probable cause. In County of Riverside v. McLaughlin, 500 U.S. 44, 111 S. Ct. 1661, 114 L. Ed. 2d 49 (1991), the Court made it a constitutional requirement that a prompt judicial determination of probable cause follow a warrantless arrest. It ruled that a determination must be made without unreasonable delay, and in no event later than forty-eight hours after arrest. Therefore, all state and federal warrantless arrests must comply with the holdings of Gerstein and County of Riverside.

14. Fourteenth Amendment

"No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of the law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

15. 42 U.S.C § 1985 — Conspiracy to Interfere with Civil Rights

(2) If two or more persons conspire for the purpose of impeding, hindering, obstructing, or defeating, in any manner, the due course of justice in any State or Territory, with intent to deny to any citizen the equal protection of the laws or to injure him or his property for lawfully enforcing, or attempting to enforce, the right of any person, or class of persons, to the equal protection of the laws;

(3) A conspiracy involving two or more persons for the purpose of depriving, directly or indirectly, a person or class of persons of the equal protection of the laws and an act in furtherance of the conspiracy which causes injury to a person or property, or a deprivation of any right or privilege of a citizen of the United States, the party so injured or deprived may have an action for the recovery of damages occasioned by such injury or deprivation, against any one or more of the conspirators.

16. 42 U.S.C § 1986 — Action for Neglect to Prevent

Every person who, having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done, and mentioned in section 1985 of this title, are about to be committed, and having power to prevent or aid in preventing the commission of the same, neglects or refuses so to do, if such wrongful act be committed, shall be liable to the party injured, or his legal representatives, for all damages caused by such wrongful act, which such person by reasonable diligence could have prevented; and such damages may be recovered in an action on the case; and any number of persons guilty of such wrongful neglect or refusal may be joined as defendants in the action.

CONNECTICUT PRACTICE BOOK

17. Rule 3.8 (1) Special Responsibilities of a Prosecutor

The prosecutor in a criminal case shall refrain from prosecuting a charge that the prosecutor knows is not supported by probable cause.

18. Section 36-11 — Information and Complaint; Use

All felonies shall be prosecuted by information. All misdemeanors, violations, and infractions shall be prosecuted by information or complaint. In all jury cases, and in all other cases on written request of the defendant, the prosecuting authority as of course shall issue an information in place of the uniform summons and complaint. (P.B. 1978-1997, Sec. 616.)

19. Section 36-15 — Filing and Availability of Information

The information or complaint shall be filed with the clerk and be available for inspection by the defendant or counsel for the defendant. Upon written request, a copy thereof shall be furnished without charge to the defendant or counsel for the defendant. (P.B. 1978-1997, Sec. 620.)

20. Section 37-2 — Information and Materials to Be Provided to the Defendant Prior to Arraignment

Prior to the arraignment of the defendant before the judicial authority to determine the existence of probable cause to believe such person committed the offense charged or to determine the conditions of such person's release pursuant to Section 38-4, the prosecuting authority shall provide the defendant or counsel with a copy of any affidavit or report submitted to the Court for the purpose of making such determination.

21. Section 37-12(a) — Defendant in Custody; Determination of Probable Cause

If a defendant has been arrested without a warrant and has not been released from custody by the time of the arraignment or is not released at the arraignment pursuant to Section 38-4, the judicial authority shall, unless waived by the defendant, make an independent determination as to whether there is probable cause for believing that the offense charged has been committed by the defendant. Unless such a defendant is released sooner, such probable cause determination shall be made no later than forty-eight hours following the defendant's arrest. Such determination shall be made in a non-adversary proceeding, which may be ex parte based on affidavits. If no such probable cause is found, the judicial authority shall release the defendant from custody.

22. Section 38-19 — Violation of Conditions of Bail; Order to Appear

Upon application by the prosecuting authority alleging that a defendant has violated the conditions of release, a judicial authority may, if probable cause is found, order that the defendant appear in Court for a hearing upon such allegations. Said order shall be served upon the defendant (1) by delivering a copy to the defendant personally, (2) by leaving it at his or her usual place of abode with a person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein, (3) by mailing it by registered or certified mail to the defendant's last known address, or (4) by serving the order upon the defendant's counsel who shall notify the defendant of the order and the hearing date. If service is made pursuant to (4) above and such service proves insufficient to give the defendant notice, then service shall be made as otherwise provided in this section. (P.B. 1978-1997, Sec. 682.)

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

NOTE: Factual background section does not contain all the facts and circumstances known to the Plaintiffs about this matter. It was prepared solely to litigate this Complaint.

Fourth Amendment Violations

23. The Fourth Amendment requires judicial probable cause where a warrantless arrest has occurred. The U.S. Supreme Court, in Gerstein v. Pugh, 420 U.S. 103, 95 S. Ct. 854, 43 L. Ed. 2d 54 (1975), mandated that persons arrested without a warrant and held by the police must be given a preliminary hearing to determine if there is probable cause. In County of Riverside v. McLaughlin, 500 U.S. 44, 111 S. Ct. 1661, 114 L. Ed. 2d 49 (1991), the Court made it a constitutional requirement that a prompt judicial determination of probable cause follow a warrantless arrest. It ruled that a determination must be made without unreasonable delay, and in no event later than forty-eight hours after arrest. Therefore, all state and federal warrantless arrests must comply with the holdings of Gerstein and County of Riverside.

I. Plaintiff Deafueh remained unlawfully detained for a total of one hundred and four (104) hours after a warrantless arrest and without a probable cause determination.

24. Around noon on Friday, September 13, 2019, Plaintiff Deafueh was illegally arrested by Trooper Ethan Tanksley, Trooper James Esposito, and Trooper Leroux in Killingly, Connecticut without a warrant.

25. Plaintiff Deafueh was taken to the Troop D Police Station in Danielson, where Plaintiff Deafueh was illegally detained and stayed overnight.

26. On Saturday, September 14, 2019, Troopers transported Plaintiff Deafueh to the York Correctional Institution, where Plaintiff Deafueh was again unlawfully detained.

27. Plaintiff Deafueh was detained for more than 48 hours after a warrantless arrest. During this period, the Court did not hold a probable cause hearing, in violation of the Fourth Amendment and Plaintiff's fundamental right to Due Process.

28. On Monday, September 16, 2019, approximately seventy (70) hours after Plaintiff Deafueh's warrantless arrest and while Plaintiff Deafueh was still in custody, Plaintiff Deafueh was brought before Defendant Jack Fischer for arraignment.

29. Instead of releasing Plaintiff Deafueh from custody and dismissing her case, Defendant Jack Fischer set a $20,000 bail for Plaintiff Deafueh.

30. After the Arraignment, Defendant Jack Fischer ordered Plaintiff Deafueh to remain in custody.

31. Plaintiff Deafueh was returned to the York Correctional Institution and was further detained on a warrantless arrest and without a probable cause determination hearing in reckless disregard for Plaintiff Deafueh's Fourth Amendment rights.

32. Plaintiff Deafueh remained detained at the York Correctional Institution until Tuesday, September 17, 2019.

33. In all, from September 13, 2019 through September 17, 2019, Plaintiff Deafueh remained unlawfully detained for a total of one-hundred and four (104) hours after a warrantless arrest and without a probable cause determination hearing in violation of the Fourth Amendment and in violation of the Supreme Court's holding in Gerstein and County of Riverside.

II. Plaintiff Juahdi remained unlawfully detained for a total of eighty-six (86) hours after a warrantless arrest and without a probable cause determination.

34. On Saturday, September 14, 2019, around 6:30 a.m., Plaintiff Juahdi was illegally arrested in Killingly, Connecticut without a warrant by Trooper Howard Smith.

35. Plaintiff Juahdi was taken to the Troop D Police Station in Danielson, where she was illegally detained.

36. Thereafter, Plaintiff Juahdi was transported to the York Correctional Institution, where she was again unlawfully detained.

37. Plaintiff Juahdi was detained for more than 48 hours after a warrantless arrest. During this period, the Court did not hold a probable cause hearing, in violation of the Fourth Amendment and Plaintiff's fundamental right to Due Process.

38. On Monday, September 16, 2019, more than fifty (50) hours after Plaintiff Juahdi's warrantless arrest and while Plaintiff Juahdi was still in custody at the York Correctional Institution, Plaintiff Juahdi was brought before Defendant Jack Fischer for arraignment.

39. Instead of releasing Plaintiff Juahdi from custody and dismissing her case, Defendant Jack Fischer set a $10,000 bail for Plaintiff Juahdi.

40. After the Arraignment, Defendant Jack Fischer ordered Plaintiff Juahdi to remain in custody.

41. Plaintiff Juahdi was returned to the York Correctional Institution and was further detained on a warrantless arrest and without a probable cause determination hearing in reckless disregard for Plaintiff Juahdi's Fourth Amendment rights.

42. Plaintiff Juahdi remained detained at the York Correctional Institution until Tuesday, September 17, 2019.

43. In all, from September 14, 2019 through September 17, 2019, Plaintiff Juahdi remained unlawfully detained for a total of eighty-six (86) hours after a warrantless arrest and without a probable cause determination hearing in violation of the Fourth Amendment and the Supreme Court's holding in Gerstein and County of Riverside.

III. Lack of probable cause rendered Plaintiffs warrantless arrests invalid.

44. Motivated by racial animus against African-Americans, Defendants Jack Fischer, Mark Stabile, and Barry Armata conspired to initiate criminal proceedings on September 16, 2019 against Plaintiff Deafueh and Plaintiff Juahdi when they knew that the State of Connecticut lacked probable cause.

45. In December 2019, Defendant Elizabeth Leaming took over Plaintiffs' respective cases after Defendant Mark Stabile was removed from Plaintiff cases. Instead of dismissing Plaintiffs' cases for lack of probable case, Defendant Elizabeth Leaming too, acting in concert with the other defendants, conspired to continue to unlawfully prosecute Plaintiffs without probable cause.

46. In the absence of an independent determination of probable cause within 48 hours of warrantless arrests, both Plaintiff Deafueh's and Plaintiff Juahdi's cases should have been dismissed on September 16, 2019 by the Court as a matter of law.

47. Therefore, all orders of the Danielson Court after September 16, 2019 are void, and of no legal force or effect.

48. The Danielson Court and its Court Officials lack jurisdiction over Plaintiff Deafueh and Plaintiff Juahdi.

49. Plaintiffs continue to suffer irreparable harm by Defendants' ongoing failure to dismiss these illegal criminal proceedings. As of July 29, 2021, almost two years after Plaintiffs' warrantless arrests, Plaintiffs' cases had appeared on the docket twenty (20) times despite Plaintiffs filing Motions to Dismiss for lack of probable cause. Exhibit 1, Exhibit 2, Exhibit 3, and Exhibit 4

IV. Prosecution was not supported by probable cause so Defendants forged probable cause documents then filed them in Plaintiffs' cases.

50. On March 31, 2021, Plaintiffs obtained copies of their files from the Danielson Court Clerk's Office.

51. Upon examination of the documents in their files, Plaintiffs discovered that Defendants Elizabeth Leaming, Jack Fischer, Barry Armata, Mark Stabile, and Tammy Fluet had placed fake "Probable Cause Documents" into Plaintiffs' case files. Exhibit 5 and Exhibit 6

52. The fake "Probable Cause Documents" contained a fictitious signature of a Judge "Armata, J". Exhibit 5 and Exhibit 6

53. However, Plaintiffs noticed that a Judge by the name of Barry Armata shows up in Rockville, Connecticut (Geographical Area No. 19). Exhibit 7, Exhibit 8, and Exhibit 9

54. Barry Armata does not handle criminal cases.

55. Barry Armata is a Civil Judge who works in the Tolland Judicial District.

56. Barry Armata handles civil cases in the following towns, which make up Geographical Area No. 19: Andover, Bolton, Columbia, Coventry, Ellington, Hebron, Mansfield, Sommers, Stafford, Tolland, Union, Vernon, and Willington. Exhibit 10

57. Barry Armata has never been assigned to Plaintiffs' cases.

58. Barry Armata does not have authority or jurisdiction in Danielson, Connecticut (Geographical Area No. 11), where Plaintiffs' cases are pending.

59. The fake "Probable Cause Documents" were supposedly signed by a judge named "Armata, J" on a Sunday (9/15/2019) when the Danielson Courthouse was closed.

60. Of additional importance, Plaintiffs' bail amounts of $10,000 and $20,000 can be found on the fake "Probable Cause Documents," which were signed and dated on Sunday, September 15, 2019. However, Defendant Jack Fischer did not set Plaintiffs' bails until Monday, September 16, 2019. Plaintiffs' bail amounts should not have been known on September 15, 2019, because their arraignments had not taken place yet.

61. The "Probable Cause Documents" were forged after the Plaintiffs' arraignments to keep Plaintiffs' cases opened.

62. Other falsified information found within Plaintiff Juahdi's "Probable Cause Document" are listed here: 1) Trooper Bryan Stadnicki who electronically signed the affidavit in Plaintiff Juahdi's case was not on the scene when Plaintiff Juahdi was arrested. 2) Two different troopers (TFC Bryan Stadnicki and TFC "E") signed the affidavit in Plaintiff Juahdi's case using the same badge number #1014.

63. Defendants Elizabeth Leaming, Jack Fischer, Barry Armata, Mark Stabile, and Tammy Fluets conspired to falsify and forge "Probable Cause Documents" then filed the fake "Probable Cause Documents" in Plaintiffs' cases for the purpose of denying Plaintiffs equal protection of the law.

64. Defendants Elizabeth Leaming, Jack Fischer, Barry Armata, Mark Stabile, and Tammy Fluets knowingly and intentionally filed with the Clerk's Office forged "Probable Cause Documents" containing material false statements, and fictitious signatures of a Judge "Armata, J".

65. Defendants Elizabeth Leaming, Jack Fischer, Barry Armata, Mark Stabile, and Tammy Fluets knew that they acted in clear absence of jurisdiction and outside their judicial capacity when they knowingly and intentionally forged the "Probable Cause Documents".

66. Additionally, since the purported determination of probable cause comes from a forged document which contains a fictitious signature of a Judge or the signature of a Judge who does not have authority or jurisdiction in Geographical Area 11, all orders of the Danielson Court after September 16, 2019 are void, and of no legal force or effect.

67. When Defendants Elizabeth Leaming, Jack Fischer, Barry Armata, Mark Stabile, and Tammy Fluet, acted intentionally and knowingly to deprive Plaintiff Deafueh and Plaintiff Juahdi of their constitutional rights, they exercised no discretion or individual judgment; they no longer acted as Officers of the Court, but as "ministers" of their own prejudices.

68. Defendants Jack Fischer and Barry Armata's oath of office includes the undertaking to uphold the laws and Constitution of the United States. When Defendants Jack Fischer and Barry Armata violated such undertakings as they have done in Plaintiffs' cases, they lost jurisdiction, resulting in their orders being VOID, and they themselves have committed treasonable offenses against the United States.

Fourteenth Amendment Violations

69. The Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution provides that "no state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property, without due process of law; nor to deny any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

V. Defendants deprived Plaintiffs of equal protection, equal privileges, and immunities due to racial animus.

70. Plaintiffs are African-American professionals who were unlawfully arrested in Danielson, a Connecticut town in which blacks make up only one-percent (1%) of the population.

71. Due to racial animus, Defendants Elizabeth Leaming, Jack Fischer, Barry Armata, and Mark Stabile deviated from the Rules of Criminal Procedures governed by the United States Constitution, and as a result violated Plaintiffs' Due Process and Equal Protection Rights.

72. The Supreme Court has held that practically all the criminal procedural guarantees of the Bill of Rights—the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, and Eighth Amendments—are fundamental to state criminal justice systems and that the absence of one or the other particular guarantees denies a suspect or a defendant due process of law under the Fourteenth Amendment.

73. Plaintiff Deafueh and Plaintiff Juahdi, have been disenfranchised by Defendants Elizabeth Leaming, Jack Fischer, Barry Armata, and Mark Stabile as outlined below in A-E:

A. Violation of Section 37-12(a), Connecticut Practice Book

74. Connecticut Practice Book, Section 37-12 prescribes the time when the judicial authority must make an independent determination as to whether there is probable cause for believing that the offense charged has been committed by a person arrested without a warrant.

75. In violation of Section 37-12, on September 16, 2019, Plaintiff Deafueh and Plaintiff Juahdi were brought before Defendant Jack Fischer for in-custody arraignments. However, no probable cause hearing was held.

76. Plaintiff Deafueh remained detained for one hundred and four hours (104) without a probable cause hearing. Plaintiff Juahdi, on the other hand, remained detained for eighty-six (86) hours without a probable cause hearing.

77. As a result, Plaintiffs' Due Process rights have been violated.

B. Violation of Section 37-2, Connecticut Practice Book

78. Connecticut Practice Book, Section 37-2 prescribes that prior to the arraignment the Prosecutor must provide the accused with a copy of any affidavit or report submitted to the Court for the purpose of making such determination.

79. In violation of Section 37-2, Defendant Mark Stabile never provided Plaintiff Deafueh and Plaintiff Juahdi with copies of any affidavit or report submitted to the Court for the purposes of making probable cause determination prior to the September 16, 2019 arraignment of Plaintiff Deafueh and Plaintiff Juahdi. Thus, Defendants violated Section 37-2 of the Connecticut Practice Book, and Plaintiffs' Due Process and Equal Protection rights.

C. Violation of Section 36-11 and Section 36-15, Connecticut Practice Book

80. On September 14, 2019, Plaintiff Juahdi was arrested without a warrant. On September 16, 2019, Defendant Mark Stabile initiated criminal proceedings against Plaintiff Juahdi without probable cause, alleging that Plaintiff Juahdi had committed a felony and a misdemeanor.

81. The Court did not conduct a proceeding – or preliminary hearing – where the State of Connecticut was required to present enough evidence to establish probable cause to believe that Plaintiff Juahdi committed any crime.

82. Felony prosecutions may proceed only after a judge or grand jury determines that there is probable cause to believe that the specific individual charged committed specific crimes. This is done either by information presented for examination and approval by a judge, or by indictment after a grand jury hearing and vote. In Plaintiff Juahdi's case, there is no grand jury indictment and no information.

83. An independent determination of probable cause was never made in Plaintiff Juahdi's alleged felony case. Consequently, Defendant Mark Stabile did not present an information to the Court.

84. However, Section 36-11 of the Connecticut Practice Book requires felonies to be prosecuted by information.

85. In fact, no information was ever filed with the Clerk's Office in Plaintiff Juahdi's case, in direct conflict with Section 36-15 of the Connecticut Practice Book.

86. Under Connecticut and Federal law, in any felony case, a warrantless arrest or a criminal complaint is not enough to require the accused to stand trial for a felony charge.

87. Therefore, Defendants Jack Fischer, Mark Stabile, Barry Armata, and Elizabeth Leaming illegally committed Plaintiff Juahdi to trial when they denied her substantial legal and constitutional rights to a probable cause hearing on the alleged felony charge.

88. Defendants Jack Fischer, Barry Armata, Mark Stabile, and Elizabeth Leaming violated Plaintiff Juahdi's Fourteenth Amendment rights and Sections 36-11 and 36-15 of the Connecticut Practice Book.

89. Plaintiff Juahdi's case should have been dismissed on September 16, 2019 as a matter of law.

D. Violation of Rule 3.8 (1), Connecticut Practice Book

90. Rule 3.8 (1) of the Connecticut Practice Book prescribes that the prosecutor in a criminal case shall refrain from prosecuting a charge that the prosecutor knows is not supported by probable cause.

91. Defendants Mark Stabile, Elizabeth Leaming, and their co-conspirators continued to prosecute charges against Plaintiffs that they knew were not supported by probable cause.

92. Defendants Mark Stabile and Elizabeth Leaming had a constitutional obligation to dismiss Plaintiff Deafueh and Plaintiff Juahdi's cases for lack of probable cause.

E. Violation of the Equal Protection Clause – Fourteenth Amendment

93. The Fourteenth Amendment's Equal Protection Clause requires states to practice equal protection. Equal protection forces a state to govern impartially without drawing distinctions between individuals solely on differences that are irrelevant to a legitimate governmental objective. Thus, the Equal Protection Clause is crucial to the protection of civil rights.

94. Defendants Elizabeth Leaming, Jack Fischer, Barry Armata, and Mark Stabile have violated the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment and have violated Plaintiff Deafueh and Plaintiff Juahdi's guaranteed equal protection rights.

95. Defendants Elizabeth Leaming, Jack Fischer, Barry Armata, and Mark Stabile have deprived Plaintiff Deafueh and Plaintiff Juahdi equal protection of the law.

VI. The unlawful June 7, 2021 Re-Arrest Warrants were invalid and violated Plaintiffs' due process and equal protection rights.

96. It must be noted that Plaintiffs' cases were initiated in September 2019 and since then Plaintiffs, who live in Maryland, have not missed a court date in Connecticut.

97. In anticipation of Plaintiffs' Evidentiary Hearing on their respective pending Motion to Dismiss for lack of probable cause, Plaintiffs requested to receive signed Subpoena and Deposition Orders from Defendant Jack Fischer and Bills of Particulars from Defendant Elizabeth Leaming on June 7, 2021.

98. On May 17, 2021, Plaintiffs notified the Danielson Court in writing that they were not available on June 7, 2021 after all. Defendant Elizabeth Leaming was served with a copy of Plaintiffs' notices. Exhibit 11 and Exhibit 12

99. The Danielson Court had eighteen (18) days advance notice that Plaintiffs would not be available on June 7, 2021. Hence, the Court should have scheduled a new Pre-Trial date.

100. On June 7, 2021, Defendant Tammy Fluet and Jennifer Barry filed falsified Re-Arrest Warrant applications and made false allegations that Plaintiffs failed to appear to Court even though Defendant Elizabeth Leaming and the Court already knew eighteen (18) days in advance that Plaintiffs would not appear at Court on June 7, 2021.

101. The Re-Arrest Warrant applications were not only falsified, but also invalid and unlawful because the Court lacked probable cause.

102. Moreover, the Re-Arrest Warrant applications contained material misstatements and omissions and were not signed and filled out by the appropriate persons. Exhibit 13 and Exhibit 14

103. Jennifer Barry falsely signed the Re-Arrest Warrant applications as the "Deputy Assistant State's Attorney" and "Prosecutor" when she is neither the Deputy Assistant State's Attorney nor the Prosecutor in Plaintiffs' cases.

104. Jennifer Barry has no connection to Plaintiffs' cases. Defendant Elizabeth Leaming, on the other hand, is the Deputy Assistant State's Attorney and Prosecutor in Plaintiffs' cases.

105. Although Defendant Elizabeth Leaming was present at the Danielson Courthouse on June 7, 2021, she asked Jennifer Barry, who does not have any connection to Plaintiffs' cases, to apply for the falsified Re-Arrest Warrants.

106. Alternatively, Defendant Elizabeth Leaming and/or her co-conspirators forged Jennifer Barry's signature.

107. Defendant Elizabeth Leaming wanted to conceal the fact that she and Defendant Jack Fischer were falsely issuing warrants for Plaintiffs' re-arrest to create fraudulent new charges in Plaintiffs' cases so that the State of Connecticut could continue to prosecute charges against Plaintiffs.

108. The information and statements in the June 7, 2021 Re-Arrest Warrant applications were false and inaccurate. The affidavits provided by Defendant Tammy Fluet in support of the Re-Arrest Warrant applications were false and showed reckless disregard for the truth.

109. Defendant Tammy Fluet falsely signed affidavits to accompany the Re-Arrest Warrant application in which she swore under the penalty of perjury that the "Warrant/Summons/Ticket was served on the accused charging the commission of the following offenses, motor vehicle violation(s) or infraction(s)..."

110. In actuality, Plaintiffs were never served with any warrants, summons, or tickets on or before June 7, 2021.

111. Furthermore, Defendant Tammy Fluet improperly swore before Ariana Quintero, a temporary paralegal. The Re-Arrest Warrant applications required Defendant Tammy Fluet to make sworn statements before a Judge, Clerk, or Commissioner of the Superior Court.

112. Ariana Quintero does not have the authority to legally authenticate sworn statements for a Re-Arrest Warrant application.

113. The Re-Arrest Warrants were unconstitutional and brought in bad-faith.

114. Moreover, Section 38-19 of the Connecticut Practice Book states that "Upon application by the prosecuting authority alleging that a defendant has violated the conditions of release, a judicial authority may, if probable cause is found, order that the defendant appear in court for a hearing upon such allegations".

115. Defendant Jack Fischer violated Plaintiffs' Due Process rights and Section 38-19 of the Connecticut Practice Book when he issued the Re-Arrest Warrants on June 7, 2021, without first holding a hearing on such allegations made by Tammy Fluet and Jennifer Barry.

116. Defendant Jack Fischer acted in the absence of jurisdiction when he signed the invalid Re-Arrest Warrants, charged Plaintiffs with "Failure to Appear", and increased the bail amount to $30,000 for Plaintiff Juahti and $60,000 for Plaintiff Deafueh without probable cause and without holding a hearing.

117. Defendants Elizabeth Leaming, Jack Fischer, and Tammy Fluet conspired with Jennifer Barry and Ariana Quintero to apply for and issue the invalid Re-Arrest Warrants, thereby violating Plaintiffs' Fourth Amendment, Due Process, and Equal Protection Rights.

118. Defendants Elizabeth Leaming, Jack Fischer, Tammy Fluet, and their co-conspirators acted outside the scope of their authority and in absence of all jurisdiction over Plaintiffs when they intentionally applied for and issued the falsified Re-Arrest Warrants.

119. Defendants conspired to illegally commit Plaintiffs to trial by unlawfully adding fraudulent Failure to Appear charges to Plaintiffs' cases after Plaintiffs had filed Motions to Dismiss for lack of probable cause.

120. On June 7, 2021 Defendants Jack Fischer, Tammy Fluet, and Elizabeth Leaming issued unlawful Re-Arrest Warrants without probable cause in Plaintiffs' cases that should have been dismissed on September 16, 2019 for lack probable cause.

121. The actions of the Defendants have threatened Plaintiffs' liberty and freedom, and violated Plaintiffs' rights to Fundamental Fairness.

VII. Defendants acted in absence of authority and jurisdiction in direct violation of constitutional guarantees.

122. Defendants were acting as co-conspirators under the color of law, outside the scope of their authority, and in absence of all jurisdiction over Plaintiffs when Defendants (1) failed to hold a probable cause hearing within 48 hours after a warrantless arrest, (2) forged and falsified court records in criminal proceedings, and (3) continued to prosecute Plaintiffs for charges which Defendants know are not supported by probable cause and no probable cause hearing was held.

123. The acts and omissions of Defendants were intentional and occurred with willful and wanton disregard and reckless indifference to the constitutionally protected civil rights of Plaintiffs.

124. Defendants conspired to obstruct the course of justice in Plaintiffs' cases pending in the Danielson Court, and interfered with the equal protection of the law.

125. Defendants conspired for the purpose of preventing, impeding, hindering, obstructing the dismissal of Plaintiffs' cases in order to continue the unlawful criminal proceedings against Plaintiffs, who are African-Americans with no previous criminal history.

126. Each Defendant acting as co-conspirator neglected to prevent the furtherance of the conspiracy to deprive Plaintiffs of well-established rights secured to them by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments of the Constitution of the United States of America and the Connecticut Rules of Criminal Procedures.

VIII. The Court can only be effective, fair, and just if it is allowed to function as the laws prescribed.

127. The Court should be an unbiased, but methodical "creature" which is governed by the Rules of Criminal Procedure and the United States Constitution.

TABLE 1: Summary of the unconstitutional acts of the Defendants acting in concert with co-conspirators in furtherance of the violations of the Provisions, Statutes, and Rules overseen by Constitutional law.

No.	Unconstitutional Acts of Defendants	Provisions, Statutes, and Rules Violated
1	Detained Plaintiffs for more than 48 hours without an independent determination of probable cause after a warrantless arrest	Fourth Amendment Conn. Practice Book, Section 37-12(a)
2	Prosecuted charges against Plaintiffs that are not supported by probable cause	Fourteenth Amendment Conn. Practice Book, Rule 3.8 (1)
3	Deprived Plaintiff of a preliminary hearing in an alleged felony case	Fourth Amendment
4	Before arraignment, Defendant failed to provide Plaintiffs with a copy of any affidavit or report submitted to the Court for the purpose of making a probable cause determination	Fourth Amendment Fourteenth Amendment Conn. Practice Book, Rule 37-2
5	Prosecuted an alleged felony charge against Plaintiff without an information; Information not filed with Clerk's Office	Conn. Practice Book, Section 36-11 Conn. Practice Book, Section 36-15
6	Falsified Re-Arrest Warrant applications	Fourteenth Amendment
7	Issued Re-Arrest Warrants against Plaintiffs without probable cause	Fourteenth Amendment
8	Increased Plaintiffs' bail amounts without holding a hearing	Fourteenth Amendment Conn. Practice Book, Section 38-19
9	Filed false "Failure to Appear" charges on June 7, 2021 in proceedings that should have been dismissed for lack of probable cause on September 16, 2019	Fourth Amendment Fourteenth Amendment

IX. Plaintiffs suffered severe emotional distress and trauma caused by Defendants' extreme and outrageous conduct.

128. Defendants conspired for the purpose of preventing, impeding, hindering, obstructing the dismissal of Plaintiffs' cases in order to continue the unlawful criminal proceedings against Plaintiffs, who are African-Americans with no prior criminal history.

129. As a result of Defendant's activities and reckless disregard for the United States Constitution and the Laws described herein, Plaintiffs suffered economic and non-economic damages, including, but not limited to, severe emotional distress, damage to reputation, and loss of earnings and economic opportunities.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Declaratory Relief That Forging or Falsifying Court Documents for the Purpose of Obstructing the Course of Justice is Unconstitutional

(Against All Defendants)

I.

130. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference each and every allegation in each and every aforementioned paragraph as if fully set forth herein.

131. There is no Judge by the name of "Armata, J" in the State of Connecticut.

132. Defendants knowingly and intentionally forged a fictitious signature of a Judge and knowingly conspired in using such fictitious signature of a Judge, for the purpose of authenticating a proceeding and for the purpose of authenticating probable cause documents, knowing such signature to be false and fictitious. Defendants filed with the Clerk's Office forged "Probable Cause Documents" containing material statements that they knew to be false.

133. For the reasons stated above, Plaintiffs are entitled to a declaratory judgment pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201 that forging or falsifying court documents for the purpose of obstructing the course of justice is unconstitutional.

II.

134. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference each and every allegation in each and every aforementioned paragraph as if fully set forth herein.

135. Defendants knowingly and intentionally falsified and issued Re-Arrest Warrants for the purpose of adding fraudulent Failure to Appear charges to Plaintiffs' cases to continue the unlawful proceedings, after Plaintiffs had filed Motions to Dismiss for lack of probable cause.

136. Plaintiffs have been injured and damaged, and have suffered a severe violation of their Constitutional Rights as a result of the falsified Re-Arrest Warrants.

137. For the reasons stated above, Plaintiffs are entitled to a declaratory judgment pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201 that it is unconstitutional to use, attempt to use, possess, obtain, accept, to provide any forged, counterfeit, altered, or falsely made document for the purpose of authenticating a Re-Arrest Warrant application, or tender in evidence any such falsified or invalid document, knowing such document to be false.

138. Plaintiffs repeat and re-allege their claims for Actual Damages, Declaratory Relief and Injunctive Relief.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Declaratory Judgment that Defendants Conspired to Interfere with Plaintiffs' Civil Rights – 42 U.S.C. § 1985

(Against All Defendants)

139. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference each and every allegation in each and every aforementioned paragraph as if fully set forth herein.

140. 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3) make it unlawful for two or more persons to conspire for the purpose of depriving, directly or indirectly, a person or class of persons of the equal protection of the laws and an act in furtherance of the conspiracy which causes injury to a person or property, or a deprivation of any right or privilege of a citizen of the United States.

141. Each of the Defendants has acted in concert with various co-conspirators in carrying out the deprivation of civil rights and civil rights abuses against Plaintiffs, who are African-Americans, for the purpose of directly depriving Plaintiffs the equal protection of the laws and other guaranteed constitutional rights in a criminal proceeding.

142. Defendants have authorized, ratified and approved the acts of the other Defendants with full knowledge of those acts to violate Plaintiffs' Fourth, and Fourteenth amendments rights guaranteed to them by the United States Constitution.

143. Plaintiffs have been injured and damaged, and are suffering severe violations of their Constitutional rights.

144. Defendants are liable to Plaintiffs for Declaratory and Injunctive Relief for violation of the Plaintiffs' Constitutional rights.

145. Plaintiffs repeat and re-allege their claims for Actual Damages, Declaratory Relief and Injunctive Relief.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Declaratory Judgment that Defendants Neglected to Prevent – 42 U.S.C. § 1986

(Against All Defendants)

146. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference each and every allegation in each and every aforementioned paragraph as if fully set forth herein.

147. At any time, Defendants could have dismissed their unlawful cases, but they neglected to do so. Instead, Defendants conspired to continue the unlawful prosecution of charges against Plaintiffs for almost two years without probable cause in violation of the U.S. Constitution.

148. Plaintiffs have been injured and damaged, and are suffering irreparable harm.

149. Defendants are liable to Plaintiffs for Declaratory and Injunctive Relief for violation of the Plaintiffs' Constitutional rights.

150. Plaintiffs repeat and re-allege their claims for Actual Damages, Declaratory Relief and Injunctive Relief.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Declaratory Relief That Defendants Violated Plaintiffs' Fourth Amendment Rights

(Against All Defendants)

151. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference each and every allegation in each and every aforementioned paragraph as if fully set forth herein.

152. The Fourth Amendment of the United States Constitution guarantees persons, including Plaintiff Deafueh and Plaintiff Juahdi, the right to be free from deprivations of their liberty without due process of law.

153. At all times relevant hereto, it was the duty of Defendants to act reasonably and in compliance with the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution.

154. At all times relevant hereto, the Defendants were acting in absence of all jurisdiction in violation of federal and state laws.

155. The facts described herein constitute violations of several rights guaranteed to Plaintiffs by the United States Constitution.

156. Defendants are liable to Plaintiffs for Declaratory and Injunctive relief for violation of the Plaintiffs' Constitutional rights.

157. Plaintiffs repeat and re-allege their claims for Actual Damages, Declaratory Relief and Injunctive Relief.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Declaratory Relief That Defendants Violated Plaintiffs' Fourteenth Amendment Rights

(Against All Defendants)

158. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference each and every allegation in each and every aforementioned paragraph as if fully set forth herein.

159. The Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution guarantees persons, including Plaintiff Deafueh and Plaintiff Juahdi, the Right to equal protection of the law and due process of law.

160. At all times relevant hereto, the Defendants' duty was to act reasonably and in compliance with the Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution.

161. At all times relevant hereto, the Defendants were acting in absence of all jurisdiction over Plaintiffs in violation of federal and state laws.

162. The Defendants' acts and omissions were intentional and occurred with willful and wanton disregard and reckless indifference to the constitutionally protected civil rights of the Plaintiffs.

163. The facts described herein constitute violations of several rights guaranteed to Plaintiffs by the United States Constitution.

164. Defendants are liable to Plaintiffs for Declaratory and Injunctive Relief for violation of the Plaintiffs' Constitutional rights.

165. Plaintiffs repeat and re-allege their claims for Actual Damages, Declaratory Relief and Injunctive Relief.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Injunctive Relief

(Against All Defendants)

166. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference each and every allegation in each and every aforementioned paragraph as if fully set forth herein.

167. The United States Constitution guarantees Plaintiff Deafueh and Plaintiff Juahdi the right to equal protection of the law and due process of law. Plaintiffs are faced with severe ongoing civil rights abuses and threats of unlawful loss of liberty and freedom.

168. Plaintiffs are entitled to an injunction prohibiting the Defendants from any further activities violating well-established constitutional rights guaranteed to Plaintiffs by the Fourth Amendment, Fourteenth Amendment, and the Connecticut Rules of Criminal Procedure.

169. Plaintiffs repeat and re-allege their claims for Actual Damages, Declaratory Relief and Injunctive Relief.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress

(Against All Defendants)

170. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by reference each and every allegation in each and every aforementioned paragraph as if fully set forth herein.

171. Such activities are an intentional infliction of emotional distress through extreme and outrageous conduct which would be condemned by virtually everyone in the United States, and which is conduct which exceeds all bounds usually tolerated by decent society and are of a nature which is especially calculated to cause and did cause mental distress of a very serious kind to the Plaintiff Deafueh and Plaintiff Juahdi.

172. Plaintiffs repeat and re-allege their claims for Actual Damages, Declaratory Relief and Injunctive Relief.

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38, Plaintiffs respectfully demand a trial by jury on all issues properly triable by a jury in this action.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court enter judgment against Defendants as follows:

- 1) A judgment that each of the Defendants is liable to the Plaintiffs under the legal theories set forth in the above alleged Count 1 through Count 7;
- 2) Declaratory judgment that each of the Defendants have violated Plaintiffs' well-established and protected constitutional rights as set forth in the United States Constitution;

- 3) Declaratory judgment that forging or falsifying court documents for the purpose of obstructing the course of justice is unconstitutional;
- 4) Declaratory judgment that Defendants conspired to interfere with Plaintiffs' civil rights pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1985;
- 5) Declaratory judgment that Defendants neglected to prevent pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1986;
- 6) Declaratory judgment that Defendants violated Plaintiffs' Fourth Amendment rights;
- 7) Declaratory judgment that Defendants violated Plaintiffs' Fourteenth Amendment rights;
- 8) Injunctive Relief;
- 9) That each of the Defendants is liable to the Plaintiffs for unlawfully causing them emotional distress and pain and suffering;
- 10) That each of the Defendants is liable to the Plaintiffs for actual damages to Plaintiffs in the amount of $22,000,000.00 or more; and
- 11) That Plaintiffs have such other, and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

This the 27th Day of August 2021

DEFENDANT'S COMMENTS

Defendant, D. [REDACTED] Monbo hereby states as follows:

1. Defendant is not available on June 7, 2021.
2. Defendant has filed a Motion To Dismiss, a Motion to Suppress, and a Motion to Compel Bill of Particulars. Defendant has also requested an Evidential Hearing for both the Motion to Dismiss and the Motion To Suppress. Furthermore, Defendant specifically requested Subpoenas and an Order to take depositions of witnesses.
3. As of the date of this filing, the Court has not issued the Subpoena Orders, and the Court has not issued the Orders for Defendant to take Deposition of witnesses. The Subpoenas and Depositions are required for Defendant's Evidential Hearing on the Motion to Dismiss and the Motion to Suppress.
4. The Court can not set a "Motion" date when the Court has not issued the Subpoena Orders and the Orders for Defendant to take Deposition of witnesses which are required for Defendant's Evidential Hearing on the Motion to Dismiss and the Motion to Suppress.
5. Additionally, Defendant has not received the requested Bill of Particulars from the Prosecutor despite filing a Motion to Compel Bill of Particulars, which is crucial to a proper defense.
