

Are you ready to study abroad in Canada ?

We understand that International student's face many challenges when beginning their study abroad adventure in Canada, some examples of these challenges are; a language barrier, struggles to adapt to the Canadian Education system and a completely new environment.

TAIE's online OSSD preparation program offers a series of online courses which allows students the chance to familiarize themselves with the Canadian study environment before departing their home country.

What is an online OSSD preparation cours?

The key objective of the program is to encourage students to utilize their time in a way that both benefits them and helps them become familiar with the Canadian courses before their planned arrival in Canada. The program offers high school courses in ESL, English, Math, Science, Business and Humanities. Students have the freedom to choose their courses based on their interests and their future chosen career path.

Additionally, the online platform simulates a traditional Canadian educational environment. The student will feel like they are learning in a true Canadian classroom. This learning experience will boost a student's self-confidence and will in turn have a positive effect on the student's success and results in Canada.
