

President's Message

Pat Williams

Hello again,

Along with May flowers, the gloom and rain of April has brought renewed hope for mass media.

After some time, cost and groveling I have hopefully solved my technical problems,(mental are still in question)

This should hit the stands by 15th, I wanted to let everyone know I' ll be out of state 16th-1st of June?

I'll be available, but limited by phone or email.

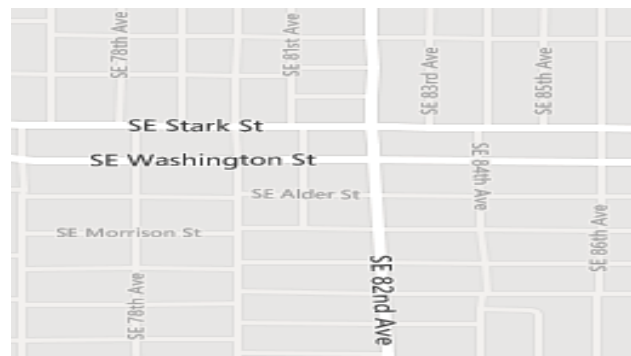

On a hunting note for those more adventurous sorts, do yourselves a favor and learn plant identification, Such as toxic and harmful plants, i.e. Poison oak, after asking 3 people & mom who I figured of all people would know since she paid for the calamine lotion when I was younger, I confirmed the hard way what was growing out of the spiria bush.

When in unfamiliar terrain long sleeves aren't always a bad thing. I'll see you at the picnic

Hunt results

April 2013

We had a beautiful day for detecting in Estacada for the April hunt, as more than 25 people turned out to search two elementary schools, and the junior and senior high schools. Several silver rings were found, as was an Argentus (silver/palladium) class ring. Several silver coins, buffalo nickels and Wheaties were picked up by lucky beepers.

Abel Villasenor topped the field to win the day, and Mike Maxon and Terry Bude rounded out the top three, with each picking up a silver quarter. Scott Hadley, Gary Bude and Arnie Mauroni completed the top six, winning silver dimes. Mike Pfau finished just out of the top 6, but came away with a silver half in the member draw.

The Oregon Treasure Trails Society was formed in 1982 when five avid hobbyists put $5 each into the kitty and started the club in an effort to provide an organization that would unite people together with the same interests in metal detecting and searching for coins, tokens, and other small interesting treasures of the past.

Today, we continue to provide a wonderful environment for those interested in this great hobby. Our club provides an opportunity to join with others and enjoy spending time on outings and sharing experiences. Everyone is welcome to attend one of our meetings.

We meet on the 4th Tuesday of each month, at 6:00 p.m. for social hr at 7:00 pm meeting
