A LETTER FROM OUR TEAM

Dear Friends of McLit,
Thank you for all your support in the recent months. We greatly appreciate all our volunteers, tutors, donors, and sponsors. As the summer comes to a close we reflect on all the successes of the summer! Caden Weis, a teen working toward his Eagle Scout rank, organized a book drive for McLit. He collected an impressive 663 books! Wow! Thanks, Caden for your hard work. Three of our McLit team members, Erin, Johanna, and Jen created amazing works of art at ChalkFest (see pics on page 2). McLit tabled at the Hmong Fest, Family Fest, and the Wisconsin Valley Fair! Many of our students also achieved greatness this summer. Several have found new jobs, some have found housing, and others have started the Move to Manufacturing program at NTC. We are so proud of our students and all their personal and professional accomplishments. Moving forward, we will continue to seek out new and exciting opportunities to help support our nonprofit organization. If you have any fund raising ideas or suggestions, we would love to hear from you! Please contact McLit at 715.679.6170, mclitofwausau@gmail.com.

Sequoyah; The Father of Indigenous Literacy

Sequoyah never learned to speak, read, or write in English. However, the magic of the "talking leaves" used by merchants at the trading post fascinated him. He concluded that to protect his people, it was necessary for the Cherokee to have their own writing system. So, he created one himself! His literacy work helped make the Cherokee nation wealthy, populous, and powerful.
