“Doing the Dirty Work: Reflections of a Master Gardener”

Friday, June 26, 2026 Noon

Claudia Heinemann-Priest, USC Lancaster Senior Instructor & Certified Master Gardener

Join Claudia Heinemann-Priest for a candid and engaging look at the "dirty work" behind environmental stewardship. In this presentation, she shares her journey through the rigorous Master Gardener certification process—from the classroom to the soil. Discover the challenges, the literal heavy lifting, and the deep satisfaction of bridging academic research with hands-on horticulture, all while cultivating a sustainable future for our campus and community.
