"Revitalizing Heritage: Native American Affairs in South Carolina"

Joshua Shumak,
Native American Affairs Program Coordinator for the SC Commission for Minority Affairs

This lecture explores the history of Native American recognition in South Carolina and future goals for cultural preservation and community development. Key topics include the evolution of state and federal recognition and the integration of traditional practices into modern contexts. Attendees will gain insights into ongoing efforts to support Native communities and foster cultural resilience.
