“Breaking Barriers: Navigating College and a Future Career as a First-Generation Student”

Friday, January 26
2024
Noon

Dr. Ero Aggelopoulou-Amiridis,
First Lady of the University of South Carolina

First-generation students face several challenges while attending college and preparing for a career. Certain policies and practices can support the academic success and wellbeing of those students. Successful implementation can lead to better outcomes for students and significant benefits for our communities.

This program will be held virtually and in person at 119 South Main St. in downtown Lancaster. To attend via Zoom, register via the link on our Facebook page. Please direct any questions or comments to the Center at 803-313-7172 or usclnasp@mailbox.sc.edu.
