

NAS
Celebration
2025

Twenty Years of Native American Studies at USC Lancaster

Celebrate 20 years of Native American Studies at USC Lancaster!
This year's retrospective includes:

- Saturday 08
November
Gallery Gatherings Tour: 20 Years of Native American Studies at USC Lancaster
1 - 3 p.m., Center Galleries
- Monday 10
November
Author Talk and Book Signing, Rev. Dr. John G. Creel, Chief of the Edisto Natchez-Kusso Tribe
12:15- 1:15 p.m., USC Lancaster's Medford Library
- Tuesday 11
November
"Blood & Myth" Screening and Discussion
5:30-7:30 p.m., Center Galleries
BBQ plates catered by Smokin Butts BBQ (while quantities last).
- Thursday 13
November
Native American Artifact ID Session
3 - 6:30 p.m., Center Fred "Henry" Shute Archaeology Lab
- Saturday 15
November
Mini Pop-Up Market
10 a.m. - 4 p.m., Center Galleries
- Tuesday 18
November
"Catawba Indian Nation v. South Carolina 1975 - 2006: An Insider's Perspective," Retired University of South Carolina professor and attorney for the S.C. Press Association Jay Bender
12:15 - 1:15 p.m., Center Galleries
- Friday 21
November
Lunch and Learn: "How to be a Journalist in Today's Media World," Vincent Schilling, Akwesasne Mohawk, Founder and Editor of Native Viewpoint, CEO and President of Schilling Media, Inc.
Noon - 1 p.m., Center Galleries

Events are free and open to the public! Scan the QR code for more information or for registration links.

nativeamericanstudies.org | usclnasp@email.sc.edu | 803-313-7172 |
119 S. Main Street, Lancaster SC, 29720

