

13th Annual Native American Studies Week

March 16-21, 2018

Political, Economic, and Civil Rights Movements in Indian Country

Friday, March 16, 2018—Lunch and Learn,

- Robert Greeson, Red Power: Grassroots Activism & American Indian Communities, 12:00pm, Native American Studies Center

Saturday, March 17, 2018—Arts and Crafts Festival, 9:00am to 4:00pm, Native American Studies Center

Monday, March 19, 2018—Film Screening: The Cherokee Word for Water, 6:00pm, Bundy Auditorium

Tuesday, March 20, 2018—“Activism of Native Women” Symposium, 2:00pm to 4:00pm, Bundy Auditorium with speakers:

- Dr. Elizabeth Ellis (Peoria/NYU) In the Wake of Standing Rock: Activism, Academia, and the Fight for American Indian Sovereignty in the 21st Century
- Dr. Courtney Lewis (Cherokee Nation/USC) The Subversive Act of Indigenous Small Business Ownership
- Jami Powell, Ph.D. Candidate (Osage/Tufts) An Ethnography of ‘The Field’: Contemporary Art and Critical Interventions
- Marvel Welch, MSW, CSAC, CCS (EBCI/NC Commission of Indian Affairs), Future in Tomorrow’s (FIT)

Tuesday, March 20, 2018 — DeLesslin George-Warren (Catawba) Keynote speaker, Remembering the Past, Healing the Present, and Creating the Future, 5:30pm, Refreshments at 5:00pm, Bundy Auditorium

Wednesday, March 21, 2018—NASC Gallery Exhibit Openings: the Pee Dee Indians, 11:15am; Jessica Clark (Lumbee) and Tom Farris (Otoe/Cherokee), 1:30pm, Native American Studies Center

Events Free & Open to the Public

Held at the Native American Studies Center

Or

USCL Bundy Auditorium

Native American Studies Center

USC LANCASTER

UNIVERSITY OF
SOUTH CAROLINA
LANCASTER

A Palmetto College Campus