A Moment with the Director of Missions

What is your purpose in life?

“Everyone who is called by My name, whom I have created for My glory;” (Isaiah 43:7). God makes the purpose of mankind clear to Isaiah in this verse. He also makes our purpose clear as well. You and I exist for His glory. That is more than just attending church, or reading your Bible every day, or being a good person. It is to do everything everyday to the glory of God. Whether you are at work, play, service, ministry, or even eating and drinking (1 Cor 10.31), do it all for His glory. So, now that you know your purpose, how are you doing with it? To live for His glory is your purpose in life. Do it well.

This week was Incredicamp at the Vineyard. I was able to attend on Day 1. What a blessing to see so many kids and to know they were well taken care of by a great group of volunteers. They were also taught the riches of the Word of God by quality Bible teachers. I look forward to hear how God moved at Incredicamp.

At the time of this article, I have visited 22 VBS's. There are a few more, but many of our churches did not have one. I hope that next year we can help those that didn't to have at least a one-day VBS event.

Continue to pray for eight of our churches that are seeking a pastor.

As you may know, Donna and I have bought a house at 100 Michelle Court in Daleville. We are in the midst of painting and getting it ready to move into.

Remember the CCBA exists for you!

I'm blessed to serve Him alongside of you,

Bro. Jud
