A Moment with the Director of Missions

The past three weeks have been a great joy as I am settling into my role as your Director of Missions. I have met several pastors and have visited in several churches already. Donna and I have been met with a very warm welcome wherever we have been.

In recent Executive Committee Sessions, we have made a couple changes we think will help with attendance and participation. The bi-monthly meeting will be on the third Tuesday of the month at 6:00pm. This will no longer conflict with the "Men of Valor" event and will get everyone home a little earlier. Speaking of the "Men of Valor", I want to encourage our men to check it out if you haven't already. Free steak supper and the gospel. Sounds good to me. Hope to see you there.

VBS is around the corner, and I would like to visit each church during theirs. So please make sure Emily has the date and time for your church's VBS. The same goes for Homecomings and Revivals. I want to support and promote your special events in addition to praying for you and with you.

One of my passions in this new season of ministry is to care for pastors and staff members. Spiritually, emotionally, physically healthy leaders make for healthy churches. Therefore, Leader Care will be a focus going into my first year. I want to meet and have meaningful conversations with our pastors and staff members. I also want to offer to them and to our churches my time and assistance with any need they may have related to church, ministry, and family.

Continue to pray for our churches that are seeking a new pastor.

The CCBA exists for the churches of the association. I am here for you, we are here for each other and we are all here for Jesus. God bless all you do for His Kingdom.

Serving Him alongside of you,

Jud
