Respect for All and Read for all at P.S. 131

Respect for All at The Little Brooklyn Pre-K Center

Our KINDNESS PEACE TREE is growing and has been a great tool to enhance our Respect For All week lesson activities. Our families have enjoyed reading all the great kind things the children are doing.

Our School also celebrated Lunar New Year with our annual Dragon Dance Parade. This year we invited our families during PALP to take part in waking up the Dragon. After presenting to the families and students about Lunar New Years traditions and meaning, the 3K students used their music making instruments to wake up the dragon (4K students) who was fast asleep in the gym. Parents then joined in a dragon dance.

April Town Hall
