District Vision

Each student will be provided with a loving, equitable learning community where they can pursue their passions, achieve academic excellence and economic freedom by graduating within four years, college- and career-ready, highly qualified to collaborate, communicate, think critically, and be creative to persist as global citizens.

District Mission

BKNHS will operationalize the Pedagogy of Critical Love by being data-driven, building collective efficacy, and viewing students through an asset-based lens to ensure that students are provided with loving, equitable learning communities where they can pursue their passions, achieve academic excellence and economic freedom.

2023-24 District Goals

Goal 1:

By June 2024, 100% of BKNHS will partner with industries to offer career pathways, authentic work-based learning experiences, enriched by industry and academic partnerships and career-connected learning informed by student voice and choice, where students are ignited by rigorous, dynamic hands-on learning experiences in 21st century, technology-infused classrooms, that inspire them in their pursuit of passions and goals.

Brooklyn North High Schools are aligned with the Pedagogy of Critical Love where each student is seen, heard and affirmed to achieve their loftiest goals.

Goal 4:

By June 2024, the BKNHS district chronic absenteeism rate will decrease by 7%, and overall attendance will increase by 5%, with an interdisciplinary attendance team that includes school stakeholders (counselors, administrators, school partners); structures for data monitoring and analysis, evaluation and assessment; and opportunities for meaningful stakeholder engagement.

YTD Attendance: 88%
Chronically Absenteeism: 34%

District Goal: High Quality CRSE Curriculum

About AP African American Studies

Brooklyn Collegiate – cohort 2
Teachers Prep will join in 2024-25

About the Course

AP African American Studies is an interdisciplinary course that examines the diversity of African American experiences through direct encounters with rich and varied sources. Students explore key topics that extend from early African kingdoms to the ongoing challenges and achievements of the contemporary moment.

AP African American Studies Course Framework

AP African American Studies is organized by four thematic units that follow a chronological flow across the course. Throughout each unit, students build interdisciplinary analytical skills through deep encounters with a wide range of texts and sources.

- Unit 1: Origins of the African Diaspora (~900 BCE–16th century)
- Unit 2: Freedom, Enslavement, and Resistance (16th century–1865)
- Unit 3: The Practice of Freedom (1865–1940s)
- Unit 4: Movements and Debates (1940s–2000s)
