Health and Safety Policy Statement

Our Commitment

We, FULLSTERKUR Limited, are committed to ensuring the health, safety and welfare of our employees, contractors, clients, and visitors, as well as protecting the environment from any adverse impacts of our activities.

We recognise that health and safety is an integral part of our business performance, and we aim to achieve the highest standards of health and safety management and ensure that we comply with all the requirements of the Health and Safety at Work Act etc. 1974.

What we will do

- Comply with all relevant legal and other requirements and seek to exceed them where possible.
- Implement and maintain a health and safety management system that is aligned with the international standard ISO 45001:2018.
- Set and review health and safety objectives and targets and monitor and measure our performance against them.
- Provide adequate resources, training, and information to enable our employees and contractors to work safely and competently.
- Consult and communicate with our employees and contractors on health and safety matters and encourage their participation and feedback.
- Identify and assess the risks and opportunities associated with our activities and implement appropriate controls to eliminate or minimise them.
- Design, construct, and maintain our hydraulic systems and equipment in accordance with the Pressure Systems Safety Regulations 2000 (PSSR) and other relevant standards and codes of practice.

- Report and investigate any accidents, incidents, near misses or non-conformities, and take corrective and preventive actions to prevent recurrence.
- Review and update our health and safety policy and management system periodically, or whenever there are significant changes in our activities, legislation, or best practice.

Who this applies to

We expect all our employees and contractors to comply with this policy and our health and safety management system, and to cooperate with us in achieving our health and safety goals.

We also expect our clients and visitors to follow our health and safety rules and instructions when on our premises or sites.

We will not tolerate any breach of this policy or our health and safety management system, and we will take appropriate disciplinary or legal action against anyone who does so.

This policy is signed by the Managing Director of FULLSTERKUR Limited and is communicated to all our employees and contractors and made available to our clients and other interested parties.

Signed:

Steven Bottomley - Managing Director
