

Hanging of the Greens

On Sunday, November 23, 2025, immediately following service, people are encouraged to stick around in the sanctuary to help us decorate for the Christmas season.

There will be drinks and goodies in the narthex and music from Gil as we get the church ready for Advent. Bring the family and hope you can join us as we decorate!