

BRAJBORO cow sanctuary

non-profit

Est. 2017

Chapel Hill, NC, USA

OUR MISSION:

“Let us protect the cows & bulls
- FOR LIFE - as integral,
inseparable
parts of nature.”

Our Purpose:

At Brajboro Cow Sanctuary, our purpose is primarily to protect cows and bulls for the entirety of their lives, as modeled by the famous cowherder, Krishna, in the historic rural village of Braj, in Vrndavan, India.

We Are:

- ☒ Working towards the ideal example of cow protection in a complete holistic system.
- ☒ Educating humanity on the approach of synergistically cooperating with nature, & the importance of resilience & land fertility through biodiversity.
- ☒ Facilitating people coming together with cows in a mood of appreciation, compassion & affection
- ☒ Providing space for: community, therapy, workshops, events, samskaras & yajna/homas

Why do we do this?

Practicing compassion and service to living entities helps us to enter the mode of goodness (also called “sattva”), and thus facilitates awakening our dormant love of God, and resultantly all of creation. In other words, our desire to maintain this project is a spiritual one...

How you can take part:

- ☒ Donate / Pledge funds to support our new constructions & educational works, Zelle 919 903 0280
- ☒ Spread awareness about our project by sharing this with others
- ☒ Donate your time. Help us! - with your expertise, service / seva. Ask us how you can take part.

Short term goals for 2025:

- FINISHING 3000 sq ft Gaushala / Cow Sanctuary Barn estimated cost $50,000
- Opening weekly: cow visits, therapy, gau seva, quality time w/ the cows

Long term goals for 2026-30:

- Improve gaushala facilities for visitors
- Yajnashala construction for Yajna / havan / samskaras / other ceremonies
- Plant biodiverse food forest for humans and cows

Contact us:

BRAJBORO.com

brajboro108@gmail.com

(919) 904-0274

sms/whatsapp