Dear Community Supporters,

JOLT! Performing Arts Festival is launching January 22-24, 2027 at Columbia Music Festival Association's Art Space in Columbia, SC. JOLT! is a festival celebrating the fleeting, investigative, and underground moments of contemporary performance art that honors, challenges, and provokes the past, present, and future. Building on traditions, but taking the performing arts to the next level.

We would like to invite you to play a pivotal role as a sponsor for this year's inaugural events. Through advertising, collaboration, sponsorships, monetary and in-kind donations, this partnership will allow for more exposure of local businesses in the Columbia / Lexington community to the attendees of the festival. Contributions will help support cost of the festival such as artist honorariums, performance production, and event costs for our opening and closing receptions.

JOLT! inspires to bring multidisciplinary performing artists who reside both in and out of South Carolina, strengthening the Columbia community to be the arts hub of the midlands. Through the guidance and support of CMFA, serving as fiscal agent, JOLT! aims to showcase artists whose work is innovative, thought provoking, and inspiring; aligning with CMFA's original mission to discover and promote the performing arts within the Midlands. JOLT! is honored to work alongside of CMFA who is a pivotal anchor in the arts community to create a weekend of events that will continue to expand Columbia's audience while presenting visionary artists. The festival will host multidisciplinary performances that present 8-10 artists each performance, open classes called "lab spaces" for the community, Question and Answer sessions with artists, with opening and closing receptions. Co-Artistic Directors, Melinda "Mindy" Rawlinson and Ashley Lindler, have vast careers in dance and are excited to expand and share their network with Columbia, having the goal that JOLT! performing arts festival will be an annual event for years to come.

Your support and generosity will contribute to creating an innovative and intimate experience with artists and their work, cultivating and celebrating a community that deeply appreciates and recognizes the superb talents within the performing arts field in Columbia, South Carolina.

Please review the following documents regarding various levels of sponsorship opportunities. We look forward to seeing you January 22nd-24th for our 2027 JOLT! Performing Arts Festival. We greatly appreciate your time and consideration!

Sincerely,

Mindy Rawlinson
