from Rails End Gallery and Arts Centre | #MyHaliburtonHighlands
#EnPleinAirHaliburton

July 1st: Take Advantage of Canada Day festivities to paint the Fireworks! 🎆

July 3rd: Enjoy the scenery and get some inspiration from others' works by painting in Haliburton Sculpture Forest!

July 5th: Spend a summer's day by the Drag River at Head Lake Park, Haliburton.

July 7th: Take in the view from the scenic lookout in Panorama Park Minden 🏔️

July 9th: Find a particularly contemplative environment to paint in, such as a Cemetery - we've posted Haliburton County Cemeteries at www.railsendgallery.com under Resources.

July 11th: Sit on the rocks in Ritchie Falls and paint based on what you hear, rather than what you see 🦟

July 13th: Find your favourite spot in any forest, paint what you see. Check out myhaliburtonhighlands.com for locales 🌲

July 15th: Take in the scope of Sir Sam's ski hill by either painting at the base of it, or from the top! Feeling confident? Do both! 🏂

July 17th: Take a walk on a dirt road and absorb the beauty of the flora in the nearest ditch! You might get lucky and spot a turtle 🐢

July 19th: Spend a day on the lake and try to catch as many ripples as you can on canvas.

July 21st: Capture today's morning sunrise or evening sunset 🌅

July 23rd: Observe an animal or bird and capture it as faithfully as possible in a few quick action sketches while you can!

July 25th: Scout out a landscape that appeals to you and invert the colours in your painting, or try using random colors! 🎨

July 27th: Observe the early evening sky for an hour or two, then paint the most interesting thing you saw while you still have some light left.

July 29th: Paint your favourite local landmark! MyHaliburtonHighlands.ca for ideas!

July 31st: Revisit your Favourite Prompt 🌟
