Who can Apply?

Applicants must be the designer, creator and producer of the art/craft sold at the Festival.

1. One studio per application.
2. One studio per booth. NO booth sharing.
3. NO outsourced items made by another studio i.e. made by someone other than the applicant in another location.
4. NO mass produced/manufactured items. Exception: ready-made components where use is clearly appropriate and secondary to the nature and design of the work.
5. NO molded forms Exception: the mold is the design and product of the applicant or subordinate to the applicant's creativity.
6. Applications containing any article made from commercial kit or pattern are disqualified.
7. Original paintings are strongly encouraged. Where original art and reproductions are offered together the copies must be to professional standards and identified to the Jury and the Public. Original art must predominate in the booth.

The Jury reserves the right to decide on the appropriateness of work to be included in the show. Failure to comply with a request to remove articles that do not meet the Jury standard will result in the rejection of future applications to the Festival.

Exhibitors' Code of Conduct

As a Participant in Haliburton Art and Craft Festival I agree to:

1. maintain an attractive booth with appropriate signage
2. conduct myself professionally at all times in dealing with the Public, Festival Volunteers and Staff.
3. read all materials provided to me and follow festival rules and regulations
4. display work closely in keeping with that shown in my application
5. meet deadlines for payment and submission of proof of insurance

YOUR APPLICATION

The Application is a one step process. BE PREPARED before you begin.

- excellence and identity of design and/or function;
- craftsmanship shown;

- overall impression;
- innovation and exploration of materials.

Acceptance and Payment

Jury results will be sent to you by email by April 3. You will have 10 days to complete your online confirmation, select booth size, location and process payment via e-transfer/credit card, cheque/money order. You will have until May 31 to provide us with your Certificate of Liability Insurance (minimum $2 million) documentation. If you do not have insurance you may elect to purchase it directly through our provider. It is your responsibility to arrange insurance and supply it on time.

Fees and booths

Spots are 10' wide x 10' deep (100 square feet).

Fee: $330 plus HST Does your booth take up more than 110 square feet? Additional 10' x 10' spot(s) may be purchased to increase frontage or depth. There is a 50% discount for each additional 100 square feet.

Exhibitors must have a canopy covering their booth and attractive identifying signage. Built structures, including shelving, walls etc. must be constructed and secured in a workmanlike manner. The use of ground stakes is strongly discouraged due to the presence of underground irrigation pipes. Please use weights instead.

Booth-side parking space for vehicles or storage is very limited - there is designated parking in Festival grounds within walking distance of all booths, and goods may be dropped off at your booth by a vehicle during set up times if needed.

Logistics

Vendor Registration and set up times

Thursday, July 25 - 12 noon until 8 pm Registration desk and grounds open at noon. You will find your spot assignment when you register. THERE IS NO REGISTRATION BEFORE NOON ON THURSDAY.

Friday, July 26 - after 8 am until 11 am Registration desk and grounds open at 8 am.

Booth must be ready when show opens on Friday at noon. The gates are closed to the public until noon. Please do not conduct sales before the Festival opens. Rails End Volunteer organizers work hard to present a quality show for both the public and the vendors, your cooperation is appreciated.

Parking

There is Vendor parking on the Festival grounds. If you need use of your vehicle during Festival hours you may not park on the grounds. All vehicles must be parked on grounds or removed at least one half hour before the Festival opens each day.

Vendors with motorhomes/camper, trucks and heavy utility trailers park will be assigned parking. Thank you for helping protect our park from vehicle damage.

Accommodation and Food

www.haliburtonholidays.ca lists local accommodations, restaurants and attractions. Book early since summer is a busy time. Some vendors choose to stay in the park (camp/van/motorhome) for the duration of the festival. This is permitted, however facilities are limited to portable toilets and there is no hydro. There is a nominal fee for overnight camping vehicles:
RV/Motorhomes 2+ axle $53.10 Trailers/campers/van single axle $26.55, tent stay no charge.

Washroom facilities are onsite Municipal washrooms and Port-a-Potties (refreshed daily).

The food and beverage area on-site will be open during the Festival with local craft beer, soft drinks, wood-fired pizza, tacos and other snacks. Local restaurants and businesses welcome your patronage.

WIFI, banking, shopping etc.

WIFI is provided by the Municipality of Dysart et al throughout the park. The signal strength varies and may or may not be adequate for processing payments on WIFI.

There are two banks in Haliburton within easy walking distance – CIBC and Bank of Montreal; a TD Canada Trust bank machine is also nearby.

Groceries, LCBO, hardware store, ice, drugstore and gas station are all located within walking distance of the park.

Security

Security is on duty Thursday, Friday & Saturday 9 pm to 6 am. Rails End Gallery and Arts Centre is not responsible for stolen or damaged inventory.
