What's special about a Community Drum Circle?

A community drum circle is:

- a shared, family friendly experience
- led by a skilled facilitator
- open to everyone
- physically accessible
- an opportunity to learn about percussion traditions around the world
- requires no prior knowledge of drumming
- builds community
- facilitates the mind:body connection
- encourages listening and cooperation
- fosters an appreciation for music
- has been used in therapeutic settings with demonstrated benefits to physical and mental health
- is proven to induce feelings of well-being and joy
- has been demonstrated to reduce anxiety, tension and physical pain
- includes all participants regardless of age or ability
- embraces our differences and celebrates our commonalities starting with the heartbeat
