

Patrick Andrews – Video Producer & Editor

I'm a creative, technically skilled producer and editor with 10+ years of experience in branded content, live sports, and corporate video. My work spans everything from fast-turnaround highlights for Major League Baseball to branded campaigns for Google, ESPN, and Topps, as well as real estate photography and lifestyle videography through my own business. I love shaping stories that connect and collaborating with clients to bring their vision to life.
