In a time when many families are struggling to make ends meet, Tethering Hope continues to serve as a lifeline—responding with compassion, speed, and tangible support for those facing crisis.

Just this past month, the organization stepped in to assist a local woman facing eviction by helping her move all of her household belongings into a storage unit. With nowhere else to turn and a looming deadline, Tethering Hope provided the hands, vehicle, and financial support to ensure nothing was lost. The client is now staying with family temporarily and has a plan in place to return and rebuild.

We are pleased to share that the family is doing well and has been able to reconnect with the ones they love. It's a beautiful reminder of why we do what we do, supporting people not just in crisis, but on their journey toward healing and restoration. ♥
Thank you for being part of this mission.

Transportation is often a hidden barrier to support, and Tethering Hope is helping remove it – literally. Volunteers recently drove clients to Venture Church, giving them access to a supportive faith community and essential resources. “Sometimes just getting someone to the right place can be the start of real change,” says Colleen Montague, founder of Tethering Hope.

The whole family—all 10 of them—absolutely loves attending Venture Christian Church! It’s been such a blessing to see them grow in faith and connection as a family.

This wouldn’t have been possible without our amazing Tethering Hope volunteers who helped with transportation and support.

🙌 Thank you to each of you who steps up to serve—you’re making a real difference in people’s lives.

The organization also responded to an urgent call from a grandmother caring for her young grandchildren. She needed diapers, wipes, and formula—and fast. With the support of Keturah's Haven, these critical supplies were delivered quickly, helping to ease the burden for a family trying to stay afloat.

Additionally, Tethering Hope partnered with YAIpak Outreach Texas to provide clothing, household goods, and other essentials to several families in need. These distributions ensure that families are not only surviving but feel seen and supported during challenging times.

"We believe in meeting people exactly where they are," Montague shares. "God keeps bringing people our way who need help, and we are doing everything we can to say 'yes'—even when it's hard."

With the organization's 501(c)(3) status still in process, Colleen and her team are pressing forward, launching grassroots fundraising efforts and continuing to serve one family at a time. Whether it's moving furniture, offering a ride, or delivering diapers—Tethering Hope lives up to its name, tethering the community to those who need it most.
