

I'm feeling a little bit lazy.
If you're feeling a little the same,
then might I suggest we get some rest,
and play the Lazy Day Game.

Lazy Day Game

by: CM Sheaks

If you don't know how to play,
there's really nothing to it.
Think of everything you need to do,
and simply do not do it!

Wash the dishes. Walk the dog.
Clean your room. Mow the lawn.
Take out the trash. Fold your clothes.
In this game, you can do none of those.

Stay in your pajamas if you want to play.
Sleep past noon. Watch T.V. all day.
Don't take a shower. Don't brush your teeth.
In the Lazy Day Game, you can do neither of these.

I've been trying to play almost every day,
but each day, I seem to lose.
My mom mustn't know how to play the game,
because she makes me break all the rules!
