Madison Pulido is a rising star in the music industry, known for her unique new generation Z style of singing and rhythm in her Latin/Tejano variety band. As the lead singer and performer, Madison has brought a fresh perspective to the Tejano music scene through her band's progressive sounds and entertaining performances/concerts.

In 2022, Madison released her first debut album, Simplemente, under Latina Music LLC. Since the Albums Release, it has been nominated for several awards, making it all the more impressive that this album was able to create such a buzz with its music climbing #1 on the radio music chart for months. Madison's vocals and the band's instrumentation are perfectly balanced, creating a sound that is both nostalgic and contemporary, with elements of classic Tejano.

With Madison's talent and the band's growing popularity, it's no surprise that they are quickly becoming a fan favorite. Madisons music gained a significant following of fans with over 5k views on TikTok. Whether you're a Tejano music enthusiast or just a lover of good music, Madison Pulido and her band are definitely worth keeping an eye on in the coming years.

Introducing the talented members of the band! Madison Pulido, the lead vocalist, is a remarkable independent artist who has won numerous awards and is the owner of Latina Music LLC, her own private label and publishing company. On the keyboards, we have Johnny Rod, a seven-time Grammy award winner who has previously played for Jimmy Gonzalez-Grupo Mazz. Rosendo Villarreal, the well-established accordion player from Reynosa Tamaulipas, has played for many music icons such as Ramon Ayala. Steve Ochoa, the lead guitarist, has previously played for Grupo Fama and is currently the lead guitarist for Isabel Marie Sanchez. Beto Ramon Jr is the lead bassist, son of the iconic songwriter and musician Beto Ramon. Eddie J Cordova plays second bass, former bassist for Grupo Mazz and the very talented Joel Garza on the drums. Madison Pulido's Band is a musical power house with a group of exceptionally gifted musicians that are dedicated to creating music that everyone can enjoy.
