

I Hate the Beach!

Vacation....a time where most people go on a trip somewhere they enjoy, somewhere to take a break and to relax. Instead, I was headed back to the one place I never wanted to go again....the beach!

I do NOT, I repeat I do NOT like the beach! The sand is the worst part about it. Walking in sand is very difficult. Your feet sink in so far, and it is very hard to pull them out. It also gets everywhere! When you wash off, there is sand from your head to your toes. Sometimes, you will have it in your hair, nose, mouth, and ears.

Even worse than the sand is the water! It is so, so, so nasty! I do not like the salty taste, and also the fish use that water as their bathroom!

Not only are the sand and water a problem, you also have to worry about trash all over the beach. Other people who go to the beach do not always pick up after themselves. Then, their garbage collects onto the beach and goes to the water where you have to worry about stepping on it.

These are the reasons why I do NOT like the beach!
