

What America Needs

It is always stressful when you are watching the presidential election. That is why I think you should vote for me, Jaxson Lockhart. I would make a great president of the United States one day.

One reason I would make a great president one day is because I am honest. I believe that this country needs an honest person that is in charge. I would rather someone that is honest running a country. The best trait for an important person is honesty. I believe that this country could thrive if the top leaders were honest.

Next, I believe that everybody is equal. I think that if everybody looked at each other the same, the country would be a lot better. If I had this mentality as president, it would spread throughout the country. Believing that everybody is equal could be a huge step in our country. I know that I can bring out the good in this country.

Finally, I have a lot of good ideas. I am always thinking because of my ADHD, so I am filled with random ideas all of the time. Most of the time these ideas are helpful, so I think it is a great trait. Some people call ADHD a disability, but I see it as a superpower.

In conclusion, make the day a lot less stressful, and vote for me. I am an honest person, I believe that everybody is equal, and I have a lot of good ideas. I would make a great president of the United States one day.
