Prospective Parents:

Thank you for your interest in Bowling Green School. We have adopted an admissions policy that opens the school to families who are spiritually like-minded, who are supportive of our philosophy, objectives, and standards of education, and whose children meet our academic enrollment standards. Our purpose is to serve families who desire not merely an independent school education, but a distinctively Christian education for their children.

Bowling Green School believes, teaches, and practices a literal interpretation of the Word of God. If your beliefs do not align with Bowling Green School's godly mission, you and your child will likely not be satisfied with a Bowling Green experience. For example, if a question regarding lifestyle choices arises in your child's classroom, the teacher will answer from a biblical viewpoint consistent with our mission statement and our Christian Code of Conduct for Students.

We respect your desire to place your child in the best possible learning environment, but if you are not in full agreement with our biblical positions, it will be best for all concerned if you do not enroll your child at Bowling Green School. Biblical principles are integrated into every subject taught at our school. Our faculty is committed not only to academic excellence, but also to teaching students how to apply the truths of God's Word in every aspect of life.

If you are in agreement with the teachings of God's Word, this school will complement the beliefs and ideals your child is taught at home, and we look forward to partnering with you.

Parent Statement of Acceptance and Commitment:

We have read the mission statement of Bowling Green School and the Christian Code of Conduct for Students. It is our family's desire to associate and cooperate with like-minded, Christian parents, faculty, staff, and students to advance Bowling Green School's spiritual and academic mission.

Bowling Green School

Christian Code of Conduct for Students

Bowling Green School maintains the right to discipline or dismiss a student for any reason. Failure to comply with our Christian Code of Conduct as well as specific requirements presented in the Bowling Green School Student Handbook will subject the student to disciplinary action including but not limited to suspension, dismissal, and expulsion.

Personal Character

Each student is expected to act in a manner that reflects biblical values and to develop personal character traits that show maturity. Further, as a community of Christians, students should encourage and support others to live in a manner that pleases God. The following characteristics are representative of Scriptural standards that should be emulated.

Love for God's Word—There is no greater source for direction and encouragement than the Bible. Bowling Green School places God's Word in the highest regard, and every student is urged to spend personal time in it regularly; furthermore, middle and high school students are required to attend the Bowling Green School weekly chapel service. (Josh. 1:8; Ps. 19:10; Ps. 119:97, 119:127, 119:165; Col. 3:16)

Respect for God, Other People, and Property—God deserves reverence and respect, and our lifestyle and worship should reflect the honor we owe Him. We are also commanded to show respect to those God has given to be in authority. Students at Bowling Green School must hold administrators, teachers, and staff members in high regard and respond with respect and compliance. Good sportsmanship is also expected in all athletic endeavors; student athletes must respect the authority of coaches and officials. (1 Pet. 2:17, Prov. 9:10, Eccl. 12:13, Rom. 13:7, Phil. 2:3, Rom. 12:16–18, Eph. 6:5–9)

Kindness and Consideration for Others—Christians are to actively seek opportunities to show kindness to others. Common courtesy and politeness are qualities to be developed. Bowling Green School students must exemplify and promote these traits. (Eph. 4:32, Matt. 7:12, Luke 6:31, Phil. 2:4, 1 Thess. 5:15)

Compassion and Christian Love—God's great love for us is reflected when we act with genuine care and concern for others. The Bible teaches that this is the hallmark of a true disciple. (Eph. 5:2, Luke 10:25–37, Jude 22, 1 John 4:7–8, John 13:34–35)

Honesty and Integrity—It is necessary that each student deal truthfully with others and maintain a reputation for choosing to do what is right. Without these traits, it is not possible to properly interact with other people or with God. Academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. (Ps. 25:21, Ps. 15:1–2, Prov. 12:22, 2 Cor. 8:21, Phil. 4:8, Prov. 11:3, Rom. 12:17–21, 2 Cor. 4:2, Matt. 5:37)

Discipline and Self-control—Christians are to exercise control over their emotions and desires so that behavior is appropriate and right. This is accomplished as the Holy Spirit is allowed to guide every decision and direct each action. (Gal 5:16–26, Rom. 6:12–13, 1 Cor. 9:24–27)

Modesty and Purity—Christian men and women are expected to maintain the highest moral standards as a reflection of God's holiness and as a protection against the effects of sin. While much of today's culture has abandoned these precepts, the biblical principles for behavior and modesty are essential. (Ps. 51:9–10, 1 Tim. 2:9, 1 Cor. 6:19–20, 1 Pet. 3:3–4, Ps. 24:3–5, 1 Tim. 4:12)

Diligence—The ability to work hard is important for academic and athletic endeavors and is a characteristic that the Bible encourages. Being available and willing to work to achieve success, academically, athletically, and otherwise, is necessary to please God and contribute as a citizen. (Prov. 13:4, Deut. 6:17, Prov. 22:29, Col. 3:23)

Responsibility—The Bible teaches that each person must give account for his actions; taking personal responsibility for one's life is the beginning of real stewardship. Making it your duty to be reliable, so that others can depend upon you, is a mark of true maturity. (2 Cor. 5:10, 1 Cor. 4:2–4, Gal. 6:4–5)

Etiquette and Manners—Bowling Green students must speak and behave with courteousness to fellow students, faculty and staff members, and campus visitors. (1 Cor. 15:33, Col. 4:5–6, 1 Cor. 14:40)

Prohibited Activities

Each student accepts the responsibility to actively uphold the Code of Conduct and to refrain from any action that would be detrimental to academic growth, spiritual growth, the safety or well-being of others, or any action that would impair the ability of others to follow Bowling Green School's Christian Code of Conduct. (1 Pet. 2:11, Rom. 14:13) For this reason, students who participate in illegal or prohibited activities or who build a reputation for involvement in these activities will be subject to discipline including but not limited to punishment, suspension, or expulsion.

Use, Possession, or Association with Alcohol, Illicit Drugs, and or Narcotics, any Marijuana Products, Tobacco, and Related Products, such as E-cigarettes and Vaporizers—as a protection against harmful effects and the controlling nature of these substances, Scripture teaches us to avoid them. (Prov. 23:31; Rom. 12:1; Prov. 20:1; 1 Cor. 6:19–20)

Pornography or Sexual Immorality—The Bible indicates that all sexual activity -- outside of marriage between one man and one woman -- is sin. Therefore, the following is considered to be sexually immoral: fornication, adultery, homosexual behavior, or any other sexual perversion. Also, any involvement in pornography or sexual communications, including verbal, written, or electronic, are prohibited. (1 Cor. 6:9–10, 18–20, Matt. 5:28, Heb. 13:4, Rom. 1:26–27, Ps. 119:37, 1 John 2:16)

Profanity or Obscenity—Inappropriate language is not permitted whether it be verbal, written, or electronic. (Eph. 4:29, Col. 3:8, James 5:12)

Harassment, Abuse, and Discrimination—The safety and well-being of students is of utmost importance. Bowling Green School does not tolerate hazing, physical or verbal abuse, coercion, stalking, intimidation, harassment (verbal or sexual), discrimination, or any other behavior that places the health and safety of other students and faculty in jeopardy. Students must avoid the use of divisive or inflammatory comments, symbols, or actions of any kind, even in jest. (Col. 3:8; 4:6; Eph. 4:29–32)

Stealing—the Bible clearly teaches that stealing is wrong. Taking, possessing, or using what does not belong to you without the owner's consent is considered stealing. Plagiarism is stealing. (Rom. 13:8–10)

Witchcraft, Séances, or Any Other Satanic Practices and/or Symbols—Anything (actions, attire, appearance, clothing, etc.) associated with these activities is in direct contradiction to biblical principles and will not be tolerated. (Gal. 5:19–21)

Additional Expectations

In light of current issues regarding sexual orientation and gender identity, Bowling Green School adheres to the following expectations and beliefs:

- Each student must dress in conformance with his or her biological sex.
- Each student must use restrooms, locker rooms, and changing facilities which align with the student's biological sex.
- God's definition of marriage is the legal and spiritual union of one man and one woman; any student courtships on campus and/or dates to school events must reflect God's future plan for a holy marriage.
