LEWIS MOUNTAIN

Lewis Mountain is a circa 1909 home on the National Historic Register, situated on the most visible and spectacular knoll in Central Virginia. With a 360 degree view overlooking the University of Virginia, City of Charlottesville and the Blue Ridge Mountains as far as the eye can see, the facade is even visible from the UVA grounds. The stone manor is a stone's throw from the Rotunda at the University and is surrounded by dry laid stone retaining walls on its 42+ acre site with grand rooms, 14 foot ceilings, fireplaces in every room and moldings beyond belief, this special and unique property is a must see!
