- Legal fees to be paid in advance and not refundable unless you inform us within 3 days of retention at our discretion.
- Disbursements – Govt. fees to be charged prior to submission and is chargeable only if the application is submitted.
- The retainer agreement shall be binding upon parties and is subject to the jurisdiction of Ontario Courts, in Canada.
- We reserve the right to retain experts in the area of business project development where required as our firm does not provide advice with respect to preparation of business plan that may help the clients in positive outcome. Such work is normally within the expertise of Chartered professional Accountants who may charge more fees then mentioned above.
- Clients may engage their own expert business advisors to help them prepare suitable business plan where applicable for business immigration.
- We strongly believe in work ethics and do not encourage any illegal activity including but not limited to preparation of false accounts, documents, etc. Lawyers are required to adhere to strict rules of professional ethics on top of one’s personal ethics not to engage in any immoral and illegal activity. If at any time during the process of an application a client is found to be engaged in such activity, we will withdraw our representation and all fees charged shall be forfeited.
- $500.00 Retainer is required prior to appointment to review and discuss a client’s case.

Disclaimer: The fees charged is for our time spent on file and legal expertise acquired during the course of our legal practice and does not guarantee positive results. Ultimate decision rests with the CIC and in case of the PNP, respective provincial govt. officials.
