BIRD STRIKE SURVEY PRACTICE WALK

Interested in getting some hands-on experience in wildlife conservation? Come join us on Saturday, October 10, 5:30 PM at the north end of Turner Hall to attend a practice walk for the Bird Strike Survey. On this walk, we will document window strikes and the locations they occur at. After completing the practice walk, you may sign up to walk and collect data on your own!

This is a great way to learn more about wildlife conservation and push for more bird friendly architecture. Additionally you'll be able to gain hands-on experience helping with research and data collection.

WHY I LOVE EQUINE PRACTICE LUNCH LECTURE AT VET MED

Join us on Tuesday, October 6th from 12:00–1:00 PM in BSB 2258 for a special session featuring Dr. Olivia Rudolphi of Rudolphi Veterinary Service and the AAEP about her love of equine practice.

The Why I Love Equine Practice meeting is sponsored by the national AAEP. Its purpose is to educate students on the realities and benefits of equine practice as well as how the equine industry is evolving in a positive way. This event is equally designed for both students who know they are interested in equine practice as well as those who are curious and just wanting to learn more.
