Gifts can be made through our parish office, or online at www.ArchLou.org/CSA.

Thank you for your stewardship of treasure!

Parenting Pointers: Thanksgiving dinner may be over but if you still have family gathered around you this weekend, find ways to celebrate family. Play games, take walks, have long talks, tell jokes. If you must shop, ask your child to "adopt" a needy child and share a gift with them. [by Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net]

2018 Retirement Fund for Religious: The collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious will be held in our parish next weekend. Many senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests served for years with little or no pay. Today, religious communities often do not have enough savings to meet retirement needs. Your support of next weekend's collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious provides medications, nursing care, and more. Please give to those who have given a lifetime.

Planned Giving: Where there is a will, there is a way to be an angel for our parish. It can be as simple as including one specific sentence in your will. To learn more about how All Saints Roman Catholic Church can be remembered in your estate, contact Deacon Michael Shumway in the Archdiocese of Louisville's Office of Mission Advancement at 502.585.3291 or by email: mshumway@archlou.org.

All Saints Choir Notes: Do you enjoy singing at Mass? Do you play a musical instrument? Please consider joining the choir! Now that we are settled in the choir loft, we are seeking new choir members to help with the music at the weekend Liturgies. Come to the choir loft this weekend and speak to Hank (Saturday), Mary (Sunday 8:00), or Bill (Sunday 12:00). You can also find contact information on our parish website at allsaintsville.org under "Calendar and News". Would you consider helping our choir during Christmas? We can always use extra voices or instruments to make our Christmas Liturgies even more beautiful for the birth of our Lord. We'd love to have you join us!

ARCHDIOCESE OF LOUISVILLE "Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice" [John 18:37] Stewardship is not an ideal but a lived faith. In order to carry out the Master's wishes (action), the good steward must first know the Master's mind (prayer) and listen to the Master's voice. Stewardship has often been defined as "prayer elevated to a lifestyle."

Catechism Corner: Christ, King of the Universe

Jesus Christ is the one whom the Father anointed with the Holy Spirit and established as priest, prophet, and king. The whole People of God participates in these three offices of Christ and bears the responsibilities for mission and service that flow from them. (CCC 783)

On entering the People of God, through faith and Baptism, one receives a share in this people's unique, priestly vocation: "Christ the Lord, high priest taken from among men, has made this new people" a kingdom of priests to God, his Father." The baptized, by regeneration and the anointing of the Holy Spirit, are consecrated to be a spiritual house and a holy priesthood." (CCC 784)

The People of God shares in the royal office of Christ. He exercises his kingship by drawing all men to himself through his death and Resurrection. Christ, King and Lord of the universe, made himself the servant of all, for he came "not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many." For the Christian, "to reign is to serve him," particularly when serving "the poor and the suffering, in whom the Church recognizes the image of her poor and suffering founder." The People of God fulfills its royal dignity by a life in keeping with its vocation to serve with Christ. (CCC 786)
