Jas Athwal for Ilford South

The residents of Mayfield ward, along with the rest of Ilford South voted for their next member of parliament on Thursday July 4th.

We are delighted that Mayfield ward councillor Jas Athwal was elected as the new Labour MP.

Every single ward in Ilford South nominated Jas to be the Labour Party parliamentary candidate.

After he was elected, Cllr Athwal said:

"Thank you Ilford South. Being elected to represent my home town means everything to me - it is a privilege and a huge honour and one I will work every single day to deserve."

Since his election, Cllr Athwal has already started working for the people of Ilford South by attending various community events, including the opening of the Mercato Metropolitano.

He has also met with international leaders to call for a lasting peace in the Middle East.

LOCAL, VOCAL & VISIBLE

Bleed Kit Installed at Loxford Youth Centre

Councillor Khan joined Samina Khalid from the KYK Project, April Mehmet from Walk It Out, GLA member Keith Prince, and the Mayfield Police Safer Neighbourhood Team at the unveiling of a new bleed kit at Loxford Youth Centre.

This bleed kit was installed in memory of Samina's son Khalid who was tragically stabbed to death in October 2021.

Loxford Lane Housing Update

All 3 Mayfield councillors joined the Council Leader Cllr Kam Rai for the topping out ceremony at the Loxford Lane development.

Cllr Solanki (Cabinet Member for Housing & Homelessness) said "A lack of affordable housing and high rents from private rental properties across the capital means families are being priced out of the market. We are building more affordable homes for families in need"
