Meet Necy Twinem

Necy's love for animals has never waned and to this day they continue to be her inspiration. She is a storyteller through her art. Her art moves people in a positive way with bright colors and tactile surfaces that she creates.

Necy, is a tribal member of the Sac & Fox Nation. She is an award winning professional artist, toy designer, and author / illustrator of over 35 children's books published in several languages.

In addition, her illustrations are found in educational books, magazines, and on book covers, puzzles, posters, greeting cards, t-shirts, giftware and public murals. Her original fine art paintings are found in numerous private and public collections around the country.

She has her MFA from the University of Hartford and is currently a professor at the Institute of American Indian Arts in Santa Fe, NM. Necy resides in the New Mexico Sandia Mountains, with two horses, two cats, a dog and courtyard full of turtles, fish and a toad.

Horses are fiery and gentle, wild and docile at the same time.

They fill my heart with joy every day anew.

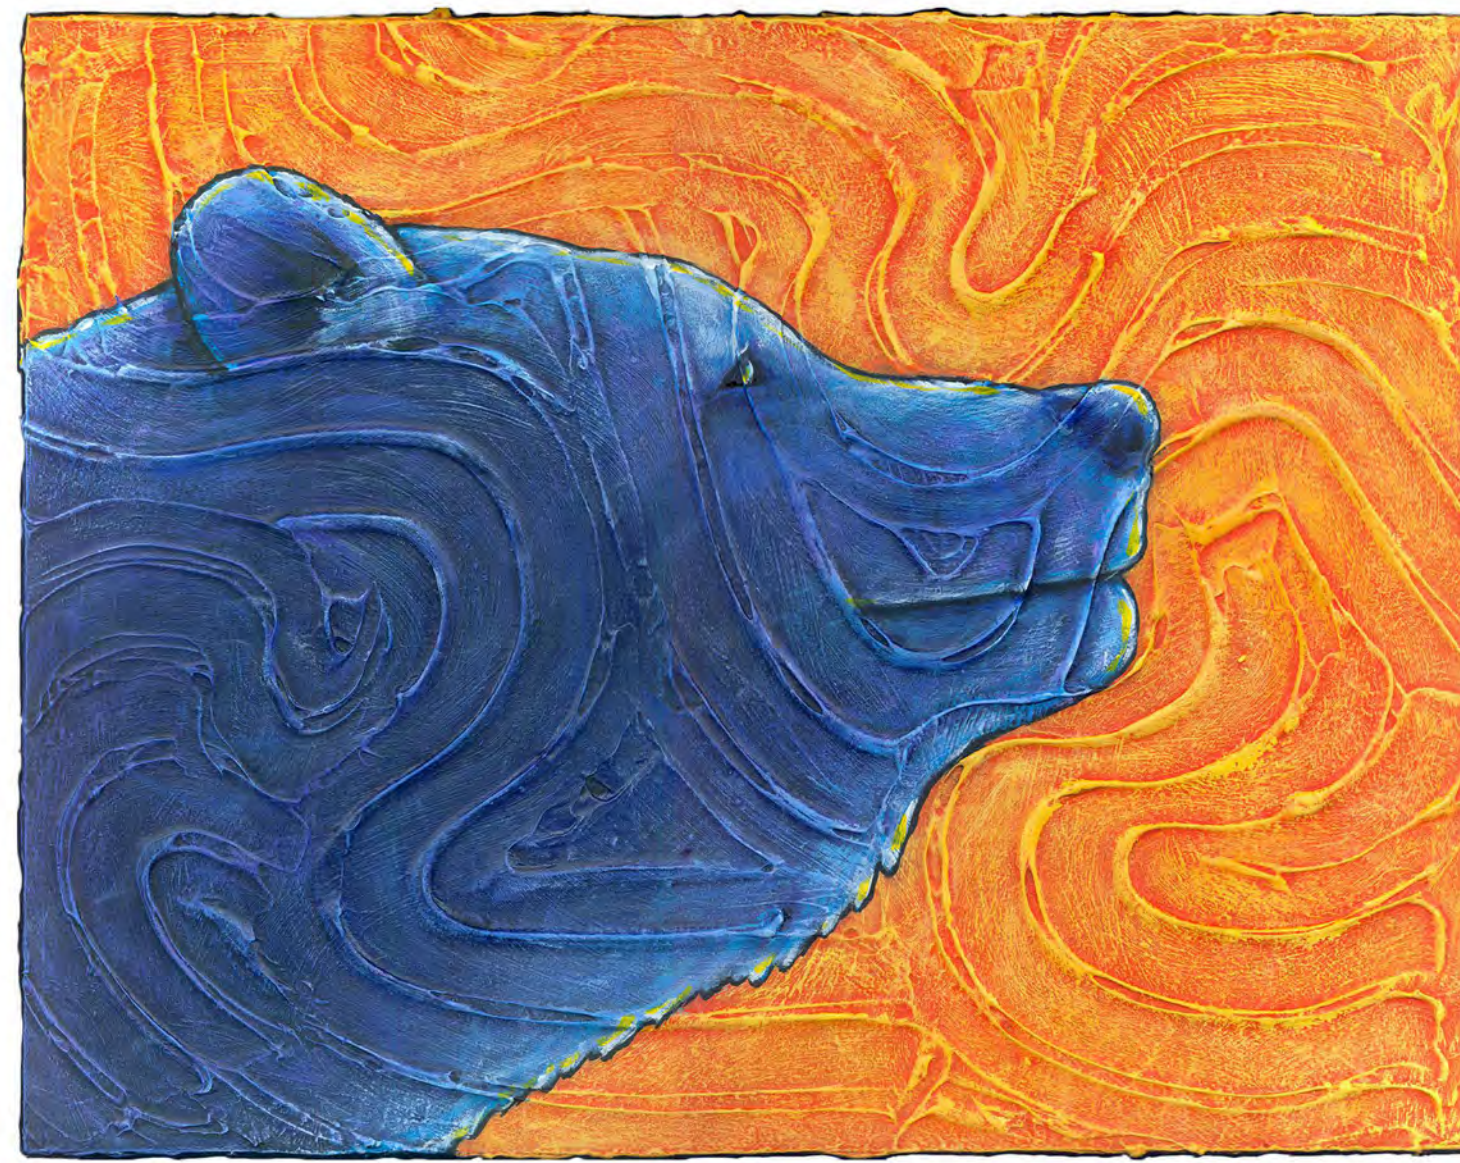

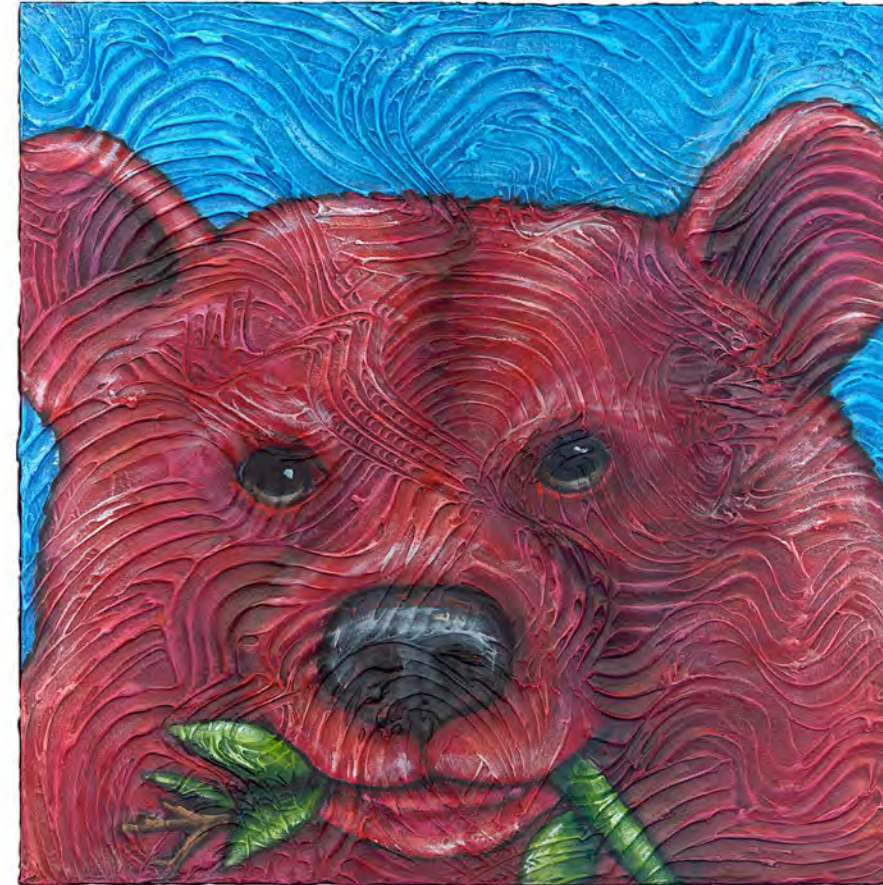

-Christiane Slawik

The greatness of animals is that they are just themselves.

-Alice Walker

I love cats because I enjoy my home;
and little by little,
they become its visible soul.

-Jean Cocteau
