

February 2020 Open Contest Guidelines

Deadline: February 15, 2020

Sponsor: Nancy Cummins Bierman

Theme: Legendary Colorado Women

Form: Optional

Line Limit: 50 (Note line limit 50 lines)

MUSTS:

1. The poem must be about a woman who made significant contributions to Colorado life, history, or folklore.

2. The subject must have lived in Colorado at some point even if her career took her elsewhere.

SHOULDS:

1. The poem should make a remarkable woman come alive for the reader: Who was she, what was her character/personality, what did she accomplish, what obstacles did she overcome?

2. The choice of form should help showcase the subject: narrative, ballad, dramatic monologue, ode. etc.

POSSIBILITIES:

Colorado women's history doesn't begin or end with Molly Brown and Baby Doe Tabor. There are lots of fascinating Colorado women who contributed to the arts, to science, and to their communities. Choose a lady who interests you and tell us her story.

Here is a list of possibilities, but you don't have to stick to the women on this list:

"Doc" Susie Anderson: physician

Helen Bonfils: newspaper manager, philanthropist

Mother Cabrini: missionary, saint

Chipeta: Ute leader and negotiator, wife of Chief Ouray

Judy Collins: musician

Mary Elitch Long: Denver businesswoman

Helen Hunt Jackson: poet Emily Griffith: teacher

Fannie Mae Duncan: jazz club owner, entrepreneur

Justina Ford: physician

Erinea Garcia Gallegos: teacher, postmistress

Julia Holmes: mountain climber

Ellen Jack aka Captain Jack: miner

Dottie Lamm: women's rights activist, author, speaker

Ellis Meredith: suffragette

Mistanta aka Owl Woman: Cheyenne trader Leonel Ross O'Brien aka Polly Pry: reporter Cleo Parker Robinson: dancer, choreographer

Dr. Florence Sabin: research scientist

Augusta Tabor: businesswoman

Belle Turnbull: poet

Lindsay Vonn: alpine ski racer Beatrice Willard: tundra ecologist

Hanna "Marie" Wormington-Volk: archeologist

These websites list more prominent women and links to information about them:

Online Magazine from Durango: https://dgomag.com/contents/1732

Colorado Women's Hall of Fame: https://www.cogreatwomen.org/inductees/women-in-the-hall/

Colorado Encyclopedia: https://coloradoencyclopedia.org/person/women

Colorado Women's Hall of Fame: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Colorado Women%27s Hall of Fame