

LEBCO: Money,

STEP INTO A JOURNEY WHERE SECRETS, HISTORY, AND FLAVOR COLLIDE. Watch money come to life at the US Bureau of Engraving and Printing, then grab lunch on your own at L'Enfant Plaza's bustling food court. Decode the world of espionage at the International Spy Museum before unwinding at a hotel in charming Alexandria, VA. Savor fresh seafood at the Fish Market Restaurant. In Old Town Alexandria, see Christ Church, where George Washington once worshipped and reflect at the WWII Memorial. Lunch comes with waterfront views at Tony and Joe's. Before heading home, explore President Lincoln's Cottage, where ideas that changed a nation were born.

Memorials, &

Mysteries in D.C.

June 15 – 16, 2026

Lorraine Royer | (717) 867-1021 | Cell # (717)-992-9181 (day of tour only)

Includes:

- Motorcoach transportation
- One night's lodging
- Three meals (1 breakfast, 1 lunch, & 1 dinner)
- Visit to the U.S. Bureau of Engraving & Printing
- Admission to the International Spy Museum
- Guided tour: Old Town & WWII Memorial
- Guide gratuity
- President Lincoln's Cottage
- Driver gratuity

Price per person:

Double: $481
Triple: $439
Quad: $416
Single: $611

Departing Lebanon 6:16 AM
Departing Palmyra 6:45 AM

Deadline for registration & payment:
April 27, 2026

Day One: Monday, June 15, 2026 – Holiday Inn Express, Alexandria, VA

The tour kicks off with departures from Lowe’s in Lebanon, PA or Walmart in Palmyra, PA, setting the wheels in motion toward Washington, D.C. First stop: the U.S. Bureau of Engraving and Printing, where money meets machinery in a fascinating behind-the-scenes look. Next, lunch is on your own at L’Enfant Plaza Food Court offering a variety of quick, casual dining options. It’s a perfect spot to grab lunch and recharge before diving back into the city’s sights. Then it’s a short stroll to the International Spy Museum, where secrets and gadgets come alive. Afterward, unwind with check-in to the Holiday Inn Express in Alexandria, VA. The day wraps with dinner at Fish Market Restaurant, fresh flavors, coastal vibes, and a toast to a thrilling start. (Dinner)

Day Two: Tuesday, June 16, 2026 – Home

Rise and shine, day two is ready to dazzle! Start with breakfast at the hotel, then join your guide for a morning tour through Old Town Alexandria, where history whispers from every brick. Step inside Christ Church, a timeless sanctuary with presidential ties, followed by a visit to the WWII Memorial, a powerful tribute to valor and victory. Lunch is included at Tony and Joe’s, a waterfront gem with views as good as the food. Then it’s off to President Lincoln’s Cottage, where bold ideas once took root. Finally, board the bus and head home - two days, countless memories, and one unforgettable ride. (Breakfast, lunch)

REGISTRATION FORM

LEBCO: Money, Memorials, & Mysteries in D.C. – June 15-16, 2026

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone Number: _____

Email: _____

Pick-up location: Lebanon Palmyra

Special Requests: _____

Mailing address: LEBCO PASR TRAVEL, 895 Royer Lane, Lebanon, PA 17042

