

LEBCO-PASR Presents:

“Historic Bucks County, PA!”

Thursday, November 14, 2024

Join us for a delightful day in Historic Bucks County, PA!

First, we visit the Pearl S. Buck House, home of the Nobel and Pulitzer Prize winning author, who spent most of her life working to ensure the rights of women and children. See the desk where she penned the novel, “The Good Earth” and enjoy the gift shop, cultural center, award-winning gardens, her gravesite and seasonal special exhibits.

Next, is the Christmas Museum at Byers Choice! Enjoy viewing festive Christmas displays inhabited by hundreds of Carolers and Kindles, watch from the Observation Deck as artisans handcraft your favorite figurines, and don’t forget to visit the Gift Emporium where you will find the widest variety of Byers’ Choice products anywhere!

Lunch is at the Cock ‘n Bull Restaurant at Peddler’s Village! Select your entrée choice on the registration form. After lunch spend some time exploring the Village and maybe even do a little Christmas shopping!

Then, enjoy a guided tour of the Moland House, a 1777 Continental Army Encampment, which became General Washington’s Headquarters, in August of that year. See the “Council of War Room” where General George Washington, Marquis de Lafayette, Alexander Hamilton, Nathanael Greene and others attended meetings in the beautiful stone house.

There will be a fast-food, dinner-on-own stop on the way back home.
