

Conserv Holds an Equity Position with Quick Wildlife Services, LLC of Oklahoma City.

Today, Conserv has announced it has entered into an agreement to hold any equity position with Quick Wildlife Services, LLC (QWS). The business will add to Conserv's existing operations in Oklahoma City and the surrounding area. Effective immediately, QWS will begin doing business as Conserv Wildlife Services and will provide wildlife control, exclusion, and insulation services.

Kyle Waltz, CEO says "Quick Wildlife Services will be a great add on to our existing Oklahoma City location and is one of the many local companies we will be partnering with across the country. Partnering with strong, local pest and wildlife control businesses and operators is a key part of our growth. Our intention is to create more value for our customers, employees, and partners".

The deal with QWS marks the 15th transaction for Conserv in 2020. Conserv expects to execute seventy-nine more deals in 2020.

Thinking of Selling or Starting a Wildlife Control Business?

Do you own a wildlife control business? Are you interested in selling all or a part of your company for growth capital? Are you interested in starting a wildlife control business?

Conserv is seeking wildlife control businesses which it can assist in capital appreciation while being tucked into its brand. Conserv is interested in wildlife control operators who run both small one-man shops and larger, multi-state operations.
