

Conserv Enters Durham, NC with Acquisition

Conserv has announced it has acquired Wildman Wildlife Removal & Exclusion, LLC of Durham, NC on May 3rd as a platform business.

Wildman was founded by Frank Cisa in 2017 and provides Durham and Raleigh with nuisance wildlife control, exclusion, and attic restoration services. Cisa mentioned, when it came time to sell his business, that he chose to sell to Conserv due to the relationship and mentorship he received over the years. “Conserv came to me two years ago and I was not ready to sell. They were very helpful in giving me advice to grow and prepare for a potential exit in the future”.

Kyle Waltz, CEO says “Frank has built a very reputable and impressive company. We look forward to continuing to provide positive experiences for his customers and continuing to encourage growth”. Cisa will remain on as an advisor while also pursuing other endeavors.

Thinking of Selling or Starting a Wildlife Control Business?

Conserv is seeking wildlife control businesses and wildlife control operators which can be apart of it's growth. Conserv is building the nation's largest wildlife control company.
