

From here you have 2 choices:

Choice A: Drive to Old Faithful area

- As you exit this area, it's just 2 miles to Old Faithful.
- After you park, the first thing you should do is go to the Visitor's Center to find out what time Old Faithful is planning to erupt. If it is soon, go wait for it out at the edge of the boardwalk.
- If it is later, spend some time in the Visitor's Center or go to one of the stores or restaurants nearby or hike around Geyser Hill.
- Our favorite ice cream is around the eastern side of the boardwalk at the Old Faithful Lodge. (You're welcome!)
- From there you can hike around Geyser Hill OR you can take the western path leading north to Morning Glory Pool and Riverside Geyser, among other fascinating geysers and pools. (see Choice B for more info on these)

This is our favorite!!!

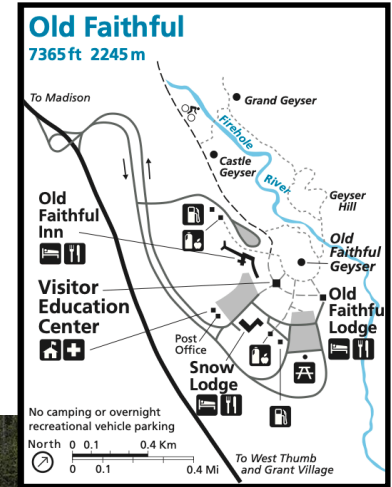

Choice B: Hike to Old Faithful area

- OR, if you want to take a scenic hike, leave your car parked at Biscuit Basin then cross the highway (carefully!) and take the Artemesia Trail toward Old Faithful. This will take you past a couple of our favorites: Riverside Geyser (a really great watch - another "better than Old Faithful" geyser, in our opinion!) and Morning Glory Pool (very pretty!).
- It's about 1.25 miles to Morning Glory Pool then another 2 miles or so to Old Faithful.
- The trail is pretty easy and goes through some forest and past quite a few pools and geysers. If you enjoy hiking, this trail is worth the walk!

Things to do in the Old Faithful Area:

- Check out the main attraction, Old Faithful itself!
- Walk around Geyser Hill
- Stay in the Lodge or Inn
- Get your souvenirs at the General Store, the Visitor Education Center or the Lodge Store

Hiking around the Geyser Hill trail

- Fill up your car at the gas station
- Walk to Riverside Geyser on the Biscuit Basin Trail
- Get stamps or mail letters at the Post Office
- Eat at the General Store, the Restaurant or the Lodge
- Get ice cream at the Lodge
- Get groceries at the General Store
- View interesting scenes and find out facts at the Visitor's Center
