

Application for Russell County Leadership Class IV

We are thrilled you have decided to apply for the Russell County Leadership Program! Before you fill out the application, take time to read this portion regarding your commitment to the program. By filling out, signing, and returning the application, you have indicated agreement with and understanding of the commitment to the program as well as your responsibilities, if selected as a member of the Class IV.

Participant Responsibilities:

I understand the goals of the Russell County Leadership Program and the commitment required of class members. If selected, I will devote the required time and energy to meet this commitment. To complete the Russell County Leadership Program, I will attend all sessions. More than 1 unexcused absence will result in removal from the class. I understand that some “homework” is part of the curriculum for the Russell County Leadership Program and that this may involve time outside of scheduled seminars.
