Have you ever doubted your self-worth, felt insecure, or feared that you weren't loved? You're not alone!! Together we will identify who we are not (you are not her, you are not the struggle, you're not alone) so that we can replace these lies and embrace how we were made. We'll dive into the truth of who we are and be empowered by the reality of what we were made for by understanding where our identity really rests by leaning more about who God is, how He made us, and what He made us for because we were all uniquely and perfectly made for a purpose. Each session will build on the previous, so students are encouraged to attend all three if they can.
