

Repeat the process for the remaining three peels.
 Stitch the four peels together to complete the block. Choose your preferred method of sewing around each peel (straight stitch, blanket stitch, zigzag, etc.)

Place the peel on top of one of your background squares. Center the peel on the square, making sure there are seam allowances in each corner. Press in place with a hot iron to fuse the peel. Flip over and press from the back as well.