

Soccer4Life Kids' Code of Conduct

(For Players Ages U6–U15)

My Promise as a Soccer4Life Player

Being a Soccer4Life player is a privilege. I promise to do my best, respect others, and represent Soccer4Life the right way.

1. Respect

- I will respect my coaches, teammates, referees, and opponents.
- I will use kind words and actions.
- I will never bully, tease, or make fun of others.
- I will respect the fields, goals, uniforms, and all equipment.

2. Effort

- I will always try my best at practices and games.
- I will listen to my coach and be ready to learn.
- I will stay focused and never give up, even when things are hard.

3. Attitude

- I will play fair and follow the rules of the game.
- I will celebrate goals and good plays with my teammates.
- I will not argue with referees, coaches, or teammates.
- I will control my temper and stay positive.

4. Teamwork

- I will share the ball and help my teammates.
- I will encourage my teammates and cheer for my team.
- I will put the team's success before my own.

5. Health & Safety

- I will bring my uniform, shin guards, and water to every practice and game.
- I will tell my coach if I am hurt, sick, or not feeling well.
- I will stay away from drugs, alcohol, tobacco, and vaping.

6. Consequences & Discipline Process

Soccer4Life believes in teaching, accountability, and growth. Violations of this Code of Conduct will be handled in a progressive and fair manner:

First Offense

- A meeting will be held involving the player, parent/guardian, coach, and Code of Conduct Director to review the behavior and expectations.

Second Offense

- Suspension from at least one practice and the first half of the next scheduled game.

Third Offense

- Suspension from at least one practice and one full game.

Repeated or Ongoing Violations

- Any additional violations may result in dismissal from the Soccer4Life program.

Serious Violations

- Severe misconduct may result in immediate suspension, bypassing the progressive steps above, depending on the nature and severity of the incident.
