

Reading List

Below is a reading list I compiled that is very helpful when trying to understand the afterlife. This includes academic studies, near-death experiences, automatic writings that give magnificent and detailed descriptions of the spirit world, reincarnation, mediumship, stories and experiences of mediums, and so much more. This list begins from an academic and scientific approach, moves on to automatic writings from spirit and works its way through mediums and other experts. I've also tried to arrange the list and each section in a way that hopefully facilitates ease of understanding. Please understand this list barely scratches the surface for all the excellent research and publications available on afterlife studies. I strongly urge the reader to explore all the available material on this topic (much more on the internet too). Good reading.
