

Abounding in Hope, Anchored in Faith

Romans 15:13 (NKJV)

“Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.”

This verse reminds us that true hope does not come from circumstances, outcomes, or human effort, but from God Himself. As we place our trust in Him, He fills our lives with joy and peace and causes hope to overflow through the power of the Holy Spirit.

The Lesson: Hope That Overflows

God is the source of hope: Lasting hope is found in who God is, not in what the world promises.

Belief brings joy and peace: Trusting God steadies the heart, even in uncertain seasons.

Hope is empowered, not manufactured: The Holy Spirit enables us to live with confidence, endurance, and expectation.

As the new year begins, embrace each season with faith, confidence, and surrender, knowing that God is working purposefully in every chapter of your life.
