

Greyhound Strong

A Closer Look at the Grandview Senior Sports Class of 2019-20

The year 2019-20 was an exciting one for Grandview High School. One of the most respected schools in the CWAC, they have done some great things through the years.

Although not always successful in the win/loss column, that is not a true measure of the greatness of being a Greyhound.

Grandview has one of the most impressive football stadiums in not only the Yakima Valley, but in the state. They have cutting-edge field turf which now features an impressive scoreboard that rivals most colleges.

The scoreboard goes hand-in-hand with an elaborate sound system. It features all kinds of memes attached to different actions like Touchdown!, First Down!, Etc.

It also features special sound bites for various sports (track and soccer), shows pictures of players and more.

When the pandemic gets under control and Grandview can return to the classroom in person, students, staff and parents will not recognize the new building or halls they will walk into.

The old school has been torn down and a new state-of-the-art facility will take its place along with an impressive new gymnasium.

The Class of 2020 may have had an abrupt end to the senior year due to the Covid 19 crisis, but they will be remembered forever and the event will no doubt make them stronger leaders for tomorrow.

As you browse the following pages, we have listed the senior sports athletes and their teams' accomplishments. Due to limited resources, not every senior or team earned ink as others did, but we think you'll enjoy it.

FALL SPORTS

FOOTBALL

Head Coach: Darren Mezger

The Grandview football season (1-3, 2-8) was challenging last fall, but victories over Wapato and Wahluke, along with a close loss to River View made the year exciting.

Despite the win/loss record, there were several bright spots among the senior class.

Quarterback Rocco Parrish became the school's all-time passing leader (4,614 yards). He surpassed Matt Concienne (2005-07) who had 3,748 yards and Chris Concienne (2001-03) who tallied 3,512 yards. (Rocco threw for nearly 2300 yards this year.)

Multi-threat Diego Cuevas displayed a strong kicking leg (earning 2nd team all-CWAC honors) while also displaying great running skills.

Cuevas, ran for 540 yards and had seven sacks on defense. Danny Ramos, another senior added five sacks.

When Parrish dropped back to pass, one target was Isaac Dean, who earned 2nd-team all-CWAC honors as well. He tallied nearly 600 yards receiving.

Another favorite target for Parrish was senior Bryce DeLarosa who caught passes worth 850 yards. Senior James Barrientes added 300 yards on catches.

In the trenches, Danny Herrera (6-1, 270) added great pass protection at left tackle.

VOLLEYBALL

The Grandview volleyball team (2-7, 5-9) got off to a hot start with a 3-1 mark which included victories over Othello, Toppenish and Wapato.

At one point, they were 4-3 before losing some tough matches down the stretch.

Senior Bailey Duis, who is headed to college to play basketball at South Puget Sound and hopes to play volleyball as well, was honored as a first-team all-CWAC selection as a middle blocker.

SENIORS: Bella Arriaga (RS), Bailey Duis (MB), Daisy Lara (OH), Ejah Rivera (OH), Anaya Baze (OH), Jackie Leyva, Dulce Licea (MB), Maria Medina (OH), Lexy Ontiveros (S), Alondra Villa (OH).

GIRL'S SOCCER

Head Coach: Anne Holden

Junior Emily Rojas was a first-team all-league selection and Grandview earned the CWAC sportsmanship award.

SENIORS: Veronica Corona (D), Emily Gomez (MF), Sinai Delgado (K), Tamara Marquez (MF), Alejandra Sanchez (F). (JV): Christin Alvarez (F), Stephanie Cuevas (F/K), Yareli Diego (DK), Jacqueline Espinoza (D), Malissa Thompson (MF).

Last year, Grandview added slowpitch softball to their fall varsity lineup and it was a highly successful debut (3-14-2). They got off to a fast start and competed in several contests.

The first-year program and their highlight was a 17-7, 15-8 sweep of 4A Chiawana (Pasco). They also beat Davis and tied Eisenhower twice.

SENIORS: Deanna Buenrostro, Anna Madigral, Erica Mora, Daisy Ruiz, Kiara Sanchez, Mollee Weddle.

The team was plagued by injuries last fall and the top runner was sophomore Jorge Morales who finished 37th at the 2A District cross-country championships.

They graduate four seniors.

SENIORS: Nicolas Cortez, Garza, Anthony Hernandez, Andrea Laurean, Bryant Martinez.

GIRL'S SWIM & DIVE

GRANDVIEW SAID GOODBYE TO STORIED GYM

Last winter on February 7, 2020, Grandview played their last home basketball game in their old Gym.

The next game will be played in their new facility in the brand-new high school.

Players, fans and friends packed the gym which began play during the winter of 1978. It was also the 30th anniversary of the 1990 unbeaten state champion boy's basketball team.

BOY'S BASKETBALL

Head Coach: Frankie Medina

The winter of 2019-20 saw the Grandview boy's basketball team return to their competitive glory of years past.

They started out in a flash, fashioning a 6-0 record through mid-December. In early January, they were 8-2, then 11-3 in the competitive CWAC before finishing 11-10 overall.

They lost several close games, including their first loss in December 20 (against Toppenish) in overtime 68-67.

In their last home game, played on February 7, 2020, they dropped a barn-burner 68-69 to rival Prosser. Emotions were high as several alumni returned in the final game played in the old Grandview gym. (It is now torn down and a new state-of-the-art facility takes its place.)

Perhaps one of the most bizarre games came when they played the Mustangs in their first meeting in January. Because of officials' error, the second-half of the game was replayed. Despite losing, the Hounds put up a stellar effort.

Senior Nate Garza was their leading scorer and one of the top in the Yakima Valley. He was a second-team all-CWAC selection.

Rocco Parrish was the Boy's CWAC Scholarship winner of $1250.

SEASON CAPTION: (9-9, 11-10) Sixth in the CWAC and were 11-3 at one point. They lost two thrilling one-point games to Toppenish and Prosser.

HIGHLIGHTS: Having several alumni including players from their state championship teams during their last home game on February 7, 2020.

SENIORS: Nate Garza (6-2, F), Rocco Parrish (5-11, G), Albert Ramos (5-8, F), Daniel Ramos (6-2, C), Andrew Verduzco (5-9, G). (D-Team: Dennis Arias, Cesar Flores, Angel Olvera)

GIRL'S BASKETBALL

Head Coach: Glenn Braman

The Lady Greyhounds) came off one of the greatest girl's basketball seasons in school history. By losing several key players to graduation, not much was expected.

Predicted to finish eighth, they surprised.

Coach Glenn Braman felt the players understood his system, played with confidence and would surprise.

They did.

They featured six seasoned seniors and five talented underclassmen that shocked the CWAC.

They battled for second place all year, starting 9-1 and their only loss was a close one to Ellensburg, who won the league unbeaten at 18-0.

Although they were eliminated in a spirited district game against Prosser in mid-February, the Lady Hounds proved they are one of the best programs in the CWAC.

Senior Bailey Duis was a CWAC Scholarship finalist and was a second-team all league selection. She was joined by freshman Jazmine Richey.

SEASON CAPTION: (10-8, 13-10) The team got off to a 9-1 mark before righting the ship later in the season.

HIGHLIGHTS: Making the district tournament once again and earning respect among their peers. They have some promising freshmen.

SENIORS: Onika Alaniz, Jasmine Arriegui, Kassandra Arteaga, Bailey Duis, Alexis Lara, Andrea Laurean, Ejah Rivera, Aaliyah Silva.

BOY'S WRESTLING

Head Coach: Manuel Plata

There were three seniors competing for Grandview last winter and with state-champion, Toppenish dominating most weights, it gave few chances for any CWAC team competing at state.

However, Jesus Sanchez (Jr.), Placed fourth at the Mat Classic at 126 lbs while Damian Monreal (Jr.) placed third at 120 pounds..

SEASON CAPTION: The highlight was when Grandview beat East Valley 40-23 on Tuesday, January 7. They had two underclassmen do well at the state championships.

HIGHLIGHTS: Junior Jesus Sanchez (126) was a second team all-CWAC selection. The team finished 18th at state with Sanchez placing fourth and Damian Montreal taking third.

SENIORS: Isaac Dean, Isaac Galindo, Martin Garcia. .

GIRL'S WRESTLING

Head Coach: Bob Johnson

Nearly half the team featured seniors with Mollee Weddle (135) leading the group. A returning state-placer, she was a District 5 all-Conference selection. (Schools from the 2A CWAC, 1A SCAC and 2B EWAC.)

Weddle traveled to state, where she qualified as an alternate after getting injured in her regional semi-final match where she came back to qualify.

Besides a standout wrestler, Weddle is a pro motorcycle hill-climber, one of the best females in the Western United States. She has won several titles.

SEASON CAPTION: The girls didn't send any wrestlers to state this year, but they had a good year.

They made an excellent showing at Sedro Woolley over the winter break which featured nearly 50 schools.

HIGHLIGHTS: Weddle was a staple for the team before an injury knocked her out of state hopes. Junior Adri Graf (145) was an honorable mention all-CWAC selection.

SENIORS: Alejandra Clara, Kaylynn Gomez, Angelica Ochoa, Jari Perez, Parola Ramos, Mollee Weddle.

BOY'S SWIM

Head Coach: Patrick Elerding

Eleven swimmers took to the water last winter for the boys Swim team featuring three seniors.

They competed well in their matches and saw improvement as the season developed.

SENIORS: Nicolas Cortez, Izak Garza, Anthony Hernandez.

THE LOST SEASON

A SPRING WITH NO SPORTS - 2020

The 2020 high school sports season will forever be known as the lost-season, one that was canceled due to the pandemic.

The CWAC had over 600 senior athletes who saw the dreams shattered, not only in sports but for a normal ending that any high school senior would cherish.

On the far right column (gray), is a listing of Grandview sports seniors who saw their year end in March, just two weeks after the first spring turnout.

A few of the coaches were able to give us some highlights of their outgoing seniors.

GOLF

Glenn Braman
Coach

Stephanie Cuevas

Stephanie Cuevas is a third year golfer. She is a YV-Tech student and does great in the classroom. She has a natural golf swing and is really starting to figure out the game. Stephanie has an infectious smile and laugh and is always having fun. She is a hard worker and will do great things in life.

Cristo Martinez

Cristo Martinez is a 2nd year golfer who picked up the game pretty quick. He played in districts as a first year golfer last year and is really starting to hit the ball well this year. He is a good student, very coach-able, and an overall nice and respectful young man.

Melissa Pallares

Melissa Pallares - 1st year golfer. I was glad to see Melissa turn out for golf despite never playing. Golf is a difficult game to play and to make an effort when you are a senior and have never played before shows a lot about Melissa's mentality. She is not intimidated by trying new things and is willing to try things that she might not be good at yet.

Rocco Parrish

Rocco Parrish is a 4th year golfer that has qualified for the state tournament 3 years in a row. Last year as a junior, Rocco made day 2 of the state tournament and finished 40th in the state out of 80 golfers.

Rocco gets it done in the classroom as well with a 4.0 GPA, and was looking forward to a 4th trip to state, playing college golf, and possibly going into the family business...Teaching.

Melissa Pallares

Stephanie Velasquez-Figueroa is a 3rd year golfer who is a good student, very funny, and a joy to have on the team. She is always laughing and having fun no matter the situation. She is really starting to develop a golf swing and is learning how to get around the course in as few of strokes as possible.

Melanie Vizcarra

Melanie Vizcarra - 1st year golfer. I was glad to see Melanie turn out for golf despite never playing. Golf is a difficult game to play and to make an effort when you are a senior and have never played before shows a lot about Melanie's mentality. She is not intimidated by trying new things and is willing to try things that she might not be good at yet. Those are great qualities that will help her be successful in life.

BASEBALL

David Kleinow - Coach

Jonathan Arguello

Jonathan was going to be one of Grandview's utility guys on the varsity this year. He always worked hard and always amazed his coach with what he was willing to do for the team. "I believe Jonathan was one of those rare kids that played every position and played it well."

Mark Bravo

Mark was going to be a Hound utility player and was making a case for a starting spot. He took last year off from baseball and was just starting to hit his stride this spring. He was one of those kids who would do whatever was needed for his team.

Ruben Corona

A two-year starter who gave his all, Ruben was always willing and able to give up his body for the Greyhound baseball team.

He has a huge heart and always put his team first. He consistently put the ball in play and it seemed like whenever the team needed a base hit, he came through.

Isaac Dean

Isaac would have been the Hounds' starting right-fielder this year and has played multiple positions during his career.

Called, "One of the fastest kids I have ever seen play the game - sometimes too fast," by Kleinow, he had put in a lot of off-season work and it was beginning to show. He was driving the ball to the fence and over it.

Joel Delgadillo

A starter at first base again, he catches or stops anything that came his way, willing to sacrifice his body to stop anything getting past him. Joel would have also been a dominant force on the hill and at the plate. He could have driven in many runs with the power he was showing in practice at hitting the gaps.

Hunter Kleinow

Hunter would have been our starting second baseman and our #2 hitter. He could be counted to out the ball in play and was always willing to put the team above himself. He is one of the best bunters in the league which is a huge advantage when you're a lefty.

Darek Lilienthal

Darek would do anything when asked, play anywhere and was one of the loudest teammates who would ever cheer you on. Whether from the field or the dugout. He would have been the Hounds' starting left-fielder this year. "I was excited to see his hitting coming around this year," stated Kleinow.

Angel Morales

Angel is a three-year captain for the Hounds. He would have been the number one starter on the mound and is a lock-down short stop who makes plays look easy. He would have made a big showing in the CWAC.

Xavier Moran

Xavier could start and play anywhere! He was poised to make a big splash this year and was penciled in to be the leadoff hitter.

This was his first year as a captain and his leadership would have shown the way for the younger Hounds this year.

Cesar Flores

Cesar was a first-year player this season. After high school, he plans on working to save money for college, then studt to become a Dental Hygienist assistant.

However, they still beat Prosser. This would have been his second year in the sport.

GIRL'S TENNIS

Wayne Abney - Girl's Coach

Christin Alvarez

Natalia Jimenez

She has been a part of the tennis program for four years and plans to attend a four-year university.

Her favorite memory was missing a match because she and David were late.

Daisy Lara

Daisy's favorite memories during her four years in tennis were the bus rides home, daily practices with cool people and all the extra times we got to rally after every home and away game.

Even though her senior season was cut short, she is thankful for all the laughs, tears and sweat she has shared with her teammates and coaches. She plans on attending Central Washington University to begin pursuing a career as a Dental Hygienist.

Kathy Ramos

This would have been Kathy's third year playing tennis. She worked extremely hard in the off-season to improve her back hand and she was excited to compete for a spot on the varsity.
