2021 Catalogue

www.eric-reyes.com

Facing the social distancing, my studio in Real del Monte, Mexico, grew towards the garden. During this time I planted some of the food that my family and I eat. This made me consider food and cultivation as part of my artistic activity.

This catalogue is a collection of works, mainly on paper, organized in four chapters where I include older pieces that embrace the interest on the relationship between politics and poetry. These chapters are: Plants and dishes, Multitudes and Loneliness, Vertical stripes and Rainbows.

The prices of the works do not include delivery service, but free shipping may apply in some cases. Please contact me for more information.
