Eric Reyes-Lamothe

Eric Reyes-Lamothe
(Pachuca, Mexico, 1974)

Independent artist, teacher and cultural manager. His art practice is inspired by the notion and manifestation of masses –an accumulation of people in public space acting accidentally or intentionally– as a body or gesture of collective speech and is made with a wide variety of techniques and process like street performances, experimental video, performance collaborations, dematerialized pieces, street botanic, artists books, abstract painting, drawing, watercolor, printmaking and collage.

Eric holds an MFA from the San Francisco Art Institute and a BFA from the Escuela Nacional de Artes Plásticas, UNAM.

He has participated in more than 100 solo and group shows around the world. Among his awards are: Fulbright García-Robles scholarship and the State Prize for the youth in Hidalgo.

His art and writings are published in eleven books and six magazines.
