

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

1. What kind of content are you looking for?

We're seeking original work that reflects strong storytelling, intentional craft, and a unique creative voice. This includes short films, series, documentaries, experimental pieces, and other formats that push boundaries and spark conversation.

2. Is there a specific theme or genre required?

No specific theme or genre is required. We welcome a wide range of styles and subjects, as long as the work aligns with our values of bold vision, high-quality execution, and meaningful impact.

3. Who reviews the submissions?

All submissions are reviewed by our internal team and partner collaborators—experienced curators, creatives, and industry professionals who are helping shape the relaunch.

4. When will I know if my work has been selected?

Final selections will be announced the week of September 15. If your work is chosen, you'll receive a direct notification with next steps.

5. What happens if my work is selected?

Selected content will be featured on our platform starting October 1. You'll be part of our official relaunch and receive screen credit, visibility, and access to our incentive and compensation program.

6. Is there a fee to submit?

No, submission is free. We believe in removing barriers for creators and focusing on the quality of the work itself.

7. Will I retain rights to my content?

Yes. Creators retain full ownership of their work. If selected, you'll grant us permission to feature it on our platform under a non-exclusive agreement.

8. What is the incentive and compensation structure?

We offer a competitive compensation model based on content placement, performance, and engagement. Details will be shared with selected creators upon acceptance.

9. Can I submit more than one piece?

Yes, Creator agrees to submit no more than ten (10) individual pieces of content per calendar quarter, unless otherwise approved in writing by the Company
