Another showing promise. The balance on head and that slightly cheeky look which is so Rottweiler. Ears aren't over large but carried a shade high. Eyes are dark and well set. Shape is good. Colour definition on her head is good. Depth of muzzle is good. Not quite the reach of neck, however the layback of shoulder is good going into good elbows. Good front and beautiful feet with good pencilling. Top and underline good, standing or moving. Quarters well developed, plenty of muscle. Angulations good. Correct coat and colouring.
